Article 1.4

Each citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who has attained eighteen (18) years of age shall have the right to vote and to be elected (hereinafter, right to vote) pursuant to this law.

To exercise his or her right to vote, a citizen must be recorded in the Central Voters Register, pursuant to this law.

deleted

Article 1.5

All citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina who have the right to vote, pursuant to this law, shall have the right to vote in person in the municipality of their permanent residence.

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is temporarily residing abroad and has the right to vote, shall have the right to register and to vote in person or by mail, for the municipality where the person had a permanent place of residence prior to his or her departure abroad, provided that he or she is registered as a permanent resident in that municipality at the moment of submitting his or her application for out-of-country vote.

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who has dual citizenship pursuant to Article 1(7)(d) of the Constitution, shall have the right to (deleted) vote, only if Bosnia and Herzegovina is the country of his or her permanent residence.

Article 1.6

No person who is serving a sentence imposed by the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, and no person who is under indictment by the Tribunal and who has failed to comply with an order to appear before the Tribunal, may be recorded in the Central Voters Register or stand as a candidate (the candidate for the purpose of this Law refers to persons of both genders) or hold any appointive, elective or other public office in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

As long as any political party or coalition maintains such a person in a political party position or function as established in the previous paragraph, that party or coalition shall be deemed ineligible to participate in the elections.

Article 1.7

No person who is serving a sentence imposed by a Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina, a Court of the Republika Srpska or a Court of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Court of the District of Brcko or has failed to comply with an order to appear before a Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina, a Court of the Republika Srpska or a Court of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Court of the District of Brcko for serious violations of humanitarian law where the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia has reviewed the file prior to arrest and found that it meets international legal standards may be recorded in the Central Voters Register or stand as a candidate or hold any appointive, elective or other public office in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 1.7a

No person who is serving a sentence imposed by a court of a foreign country or has failed to comply with an order to appear before a court of a foreign country for serious violations of humanitarian law where the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia has reviewed his or her case file prior to arrest and found that it meets international legal standards, may be recorded in the Central Voters Register or stand as a candidate or hold any appointive, elective or other public office in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 1.8

Judges of regular and Constitutional courts, prosecutors and their deputies, attorneys and their deputies holding public office, Ombudsmen and their deputies, members of the Human Rights Courts/Chambers/Councils, members of police forces, civil servants, members of the Armed Forces of BiH, members of the Intelligence and Security Agency, and diplomatic and consular representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina abroad who have a diplomatic status in accordance with the 1961 Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, may stand as a candidate for public elected office only if they resign from their position or abide by the laws regulating their status.

If a delegate in the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina holds, at the same time, a mandate of a member of the House of Representatives of Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, National Assembly of Republika Srpska or cantonal assembly he/she shall be bound to inform in writing, within 3 days, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina which of the mandates he/she selected thus terminating other mandates that he/she holds.

If a delegate in the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina acquires the right to a mandate in the House of Representatives of Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina, House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, National Assembly of Republika Srpska or cantonal assembly pursuant to Article 9.11 of this Law and if he/she does not inform, within 3 days, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina on waiving of that right, the mandate shall not be allocated to him/her and it shall be distributed to the next qualified candidate on the list of the constituency according to paragraph 2 of Article 9.9 of this Law. If after a question of the Election Commission the delegate decides to use that right his/her mandate of a delegate in the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly shall cease.

One person can hold maximum one (1) directly elected public office, or maximum one (1) directly elected office and one (1) indirectly elected office, unless otherwise specified by the Law. It is also incompatible to hold at the same time one directly or indirectly elected office and one position in an executive body of authority. It is also incompatible to hold more than one position in an executive body of authority.

A person may not hold public elected office in Bosnia and Herzegovina and at the same time hold any public elected or politically appointed office in another country. A person holding any elective or politically appointed office in another country shall be obliged to relinquish, within forty-eight (48) hours after the verification of his or her mandate in Bosnia and Herzegovina, one of the two (2) offices he or she holds. A person who holds any public elected office in Bosnia and Herzegovina and is elected to or appointed to a politically appointed office in another country, shall be obliged to relinquish his or her mandate in Bosnia and Herzegovina, within forty-eight (48) hours after the election or appointment in another country.

For the purpose of this article, an executive office notably includes the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the President and Vice Presidents of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the President and Vice Presidents of the Republika Srpska, the government of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina including the Prime Minister, the government of the Republika Srpska including the Prime Minister, the government of the District of Brcko, the Cantonal government, the Mayor of a city, the Deputy Mayor of a city, the city government, the Mayor of a municipality, the Deputy Mayor of a municipality, the Mayor's cabinet, and other executive functions as defined by law.

Article 1.9

A mandate belongs to the elected office holder and not to the political party, coalition or list of independent candidates, which nominated him or her on the candidates list. The mandate cannot be terminated except where prescribed by law.

Should an elected office holder, during his/her term of office, withdraw from a political party, coalition or list of independent candidates that participated in the elections or nominated him/her on its candidates list, the elected office holder shall become an independent representative.

Article 1.10

The term of office of an elected member of a body of authority at all levels shall terminate before the expiration of the mandate for which he or she was elected if:

1. he or she resigns;
2. he or she dies;
3. under a valid court decision he or she has been sentenced to a non-suspended sentence of six (6) months or longer;
4. under a valid court decision he or she has been deprived of the ability to engage in business activities (declared mentally incompetent);
5. he or she is elected or appointed to an office which is incompatible with the office of an elected member of a certain body as stipulated by law;
6. if he/she has cancelled his/her permanent residence in the territory of the electoral unit in which he/she was recorded as a voter in the Central Voters Register and from which he/she was elected, after the end of a six-month-period following the date of cancellation; or
7. for a reason stipulated by law that he or she loses the right to be elected.

The mandate of an elected member of a body of authority at any level shall terminate on the day when one of the reasons for termination established by law occurs. The competent body shall, within maximum fifteen (15) days after the reason for termination of the mandate has occurred or become known, confirm the termination of the mandate. If the member resigns, the resignation shall be completed on a form produced by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 1.11

Candidates of all political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates as well as independent candidates and other participants in the election process shall have full freedom to carry out activities during the election campaign in the whole territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Competent authorities shall ensure that no obstacles impede freedom of movement of candidates, supporters and voters during the entire electoral process.

deleted

Article 1.12

Competent bodies at all levels of authority shall not discriminate against a person because of his or her affiliation to a political party or coalition, or because of his or her support for an independent candidate or a list of independent candidates.

Article 1.13

The application for certification to participate in the elections shall include a statement signed by the President of a political party, coalition or the independent candidate(s) stating that the activities of the political party, coalition or the independent candidate(s) will comply with the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 1.14

The elections at all levels of authority in Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be held on the first Sunday in October unless that date conflicts with observance of a religious holiday of one of the constituent peoples of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Any election that cannot be held on the first Sunday in October because of a conflict with a religious holiday shall be scheduled by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina for the Sunday closest to the first Sunday in October, which does not conflict with a religious holiday.

At least one-hundred and fifty (150) days prior to the holding of an election, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall announce the elections in accordance with this law and shall notify all competent authorities and the public at all levels when an election shall be conducted, unless otherwise provided by Chapter 14 of this law.

deleted

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall publish the dates of the elections for all levels of authority in the "Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina," Entity official gazettes, "Official Gazette of the District of Brcko" and in the media.

Chapter 2

Competent Authorities Responsible for the Conduct of Elections

Article 2.1

The competent authorities responsible for the conduct of elections are the election commissions and the Polling Station Committees.

The election commissions and the Polling Station Committees shall be independent and impartial in their work. No member of an election commission or a Polling Station Committee shall participate in the decision of a case in which the member and/or a close family member has a personal or financial interest or other conflict of interest, which may raise doubt as to the ability of the member to act impartially. A "close family member" is defined in Article 15.7, Paragraph 2 of this law.

All bodies of authority at all levels, officials in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Diplomatic and Consular Missions of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be obliged to assist the competent authorities responsible for the conduct of elections.

Article 2.2

Members of election commissions and Polling Station Committees shall be persons eligible to vote.

Members of election commissions and Polling Station Committees shall be persons with appropriate expertise and experience in the administration of elections.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall determine what the required qualifications are for members of election commissions and Polling Station Committees established in the previous paragraph.

Members of the competent authorities responsible for the conduct of elections shall have to undergo the continued training during their mandate, in accordance to the educational curricula (plan and programme) issued by the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 2.3

No person can be appointed as a member of an election commission or Polling Station Committee who:

1. is not eligible to stand as a candidate in accordance with Articles 1.6 and 1.7 of this law;
2. is a member of the highest executive political body of a political party or coalition: a president, deputy president, the general secretary, secretary or members of the executive board or the central committee;
3. holds an elected mandate or is a member of an executive body of authority except as provided for in Article 2.12 Paragraph 4 of this law;
4. stands as a candidate for the elections at any level of authority; or
5. has been sanctioned for a serious violation of the electoral laws or regulations where the person was found to be personally responsible for the violation, in the previous four (4) years, starting from the day the decision became final.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall decide if the severity of the violation and the personal responsibility of the individual as stated in paragraph 5 of this article prohibits the person from being a member of an election commission or a Polling Station Committee.

Article 2.4

deleted

The election commission members shall be appointed for a period of five (5) years and members may only be appointed to the same election commission for two (2) consecutive terms of office.

Polling Station Committee members shall be appointed for each election.

Article 2.5

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall consist of seven (7) members: two (2) Croats, two (2) Bosniacs, two (2) Serbs, and one (1) other member.

The nominees for the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be jointly nominated by the members of the Commission for Selection and Nomination. The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina nominees shall be legal experts with experience in the administration of elections and/or electoral experts and may not hold any office in the bodies of a political party, association or foundations organizationally or financially related to the political party, and may not be involved in any political party activity.

Commission for Selection and Nomination shall have seven members out of whom two shall be appointed by the President of the High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council from amongst members of the Council, three members shall be appointed by the Administrative Commission of the House of Representatives of Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina from amongst members of the Commission and two shall be appointed by the President of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina from amongst members of the Election Commission of Bosnian Herzegovina.

The constituent peoples, two Bosniaks, two Serbs, two Croats and one from amongst the Others must be represented in the Commission for Selection and Nomination.

The Commissions for Selection and Nomination shall meet in its full composition for the purpose of decision making on issues of appointments regulated by this Law. In accordance with the provisions of this Law, the announcement and nomination procedure shall follow the Rules of Procedures adopted by the Commission for Selection and Nomination. A decision on the list of nominees for the election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be made by two third (2/3) majority vote.

In accordance with its procedures, the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall elect members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina from the list of nominees. If this list is not submitted to the House of Representatives thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the mandates of the members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, then the House of Representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall nominate and elect the members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Commission for Selection and Nomination shall have the obligation to provide the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH with the candidate list not later than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of the mandates of the members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

In the event a member of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina cannot perform his/her duties as established in Article 2.15 of this law the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall notify the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The House of Representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall in this case appoint a new member who is of the same Constituent Peoples including others as the previous member. A new member shall be appointed from the list of nominees submitted by the Commission for Selection and Nomination.

In the event that the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH fails to conduct the procedure referred to in Paragraph 6 of this Article, the members of the Central Election Commission of BiH shall continue to perform their duties until such time as the new members of the Central Election Commission of BiH have been appointed.

The cost and expense for the public announcement of an open competition shall be provided from the Budget of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 2.6

The President of the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be elected from amongst its members. One Croat, one Bosniac, one Serb and the other member of the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall each serve as the President for one fifteen (15) month rotation in a five (5) year period.

Article 2.6a

Members of the Central Election Commission of BiH shall exercise their employment rights within the Central Election Commission of BiH.

The document confirming the selection, appointment and termination of the mandate of the members of the Central Election Commission of BiH shall be issued by the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

The time elapsed from the appointment day until the day of termination of the mandate of a member of the Central Election Commission of BiH shall be considered as part of the member's employment.

Each member of the Central Election Commission of BiH shall be entitled to a salary and other allowances arising from his/her employment status in the amount designated for the members of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

Each member of the Central Election Commission of BiH whose mandate has terminated and is no longer exercising any rights arising from his/her employment status, shall be entitled to receive a salary compensation in the amount equal to the amount of salary he/she would otherwise receive as if he performed his/her duties, but no longer than within six months commencing from the date his/her mandate has terminated or until his/her reemployment within that specified period of time. This period shall be considered as part of his/her insurance-covered years of service, whereas the recipient of the compensation shall also be entitled to receive the social and health care insurance benefits

Article 2.7

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations which regulates its work including the election of its President.

Article 2.8

Members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for any acts carried out within the scope of their duties and obligations which are provided by this Law and other laws.

The immunity referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article may be invoked by the members of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina at any time for the acts committed within the scope of their duties and obligations in the Central Election Commission of BiH, but may not be treated as a general bar preventing criminal prosecution or the institution of civil proceedings against them.

Article 2.9

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina is an independent body, which derives its authority from and reports directly to, the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Commission shall:

1. co-ordinate, oversee and regulate the lawful operation of all election commissions and Polling Station Committees in accordance with this law;

Except as otherwise provided by this law, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total number of the members. If a decision cannot be reached by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the total number of members at the first meeting, then at the second meeting a majority of the members shall make the decision.

Article 2.19

The Polling Station Committee shall consist of three (3) or five (5) members of whom one shall be appointed as President.

The President and members of the Polling Station Committee shall have deputies.

The appointment of the President and members of the Polling Station Committee and their deputies shall be made by the Municipal Election Commission no later than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the election.

If the Municipal Election Commission does not appoint the members of the Polling Station Committee and their deputies in accordance with Paragraph 3 of this Article, then the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall appoint the members of the Polling Station Committee and their deputies.

Political parties and independent candidates whose participation in the elections is certified in the given election unit in accordance with this Law, may participate in the lottery procedure conducted by the Municipal Election Commission for allocation of the positions in the Poling Station Committee.

The lottery procedure referred to Paragraph 5 of this Article shall be conducted within the period of no less than sixty (60) days prior to the election day.

After the lottery is conducted, but not longer than within 7 days following the lottery, the political parties and independent candidates participating in the lottery procedure shall provide the relevant Municipal Election Commission with the list of candidates who qualify as members of the Polling Station Committee in which they won the positions by way of the lottery procedure.

Should a political party or an independent candidate fail to provide the names of the candidates for the Polling Station Committee members within the period provided by Paragraph 7 of this Article, such failure will be considered as the waiver from the position allocated in the Polling Station Committee, or should the number of the candidates for the Polling Station Committee members proposed by a certified political party be lower than the required number of the Polling Station Committee membership, the Municipal Election Commission shall appoint the Polling Station Committee members independently, taking into account the multi-ethnic composition of the Polling Station Committee where possible.

The lottery procedure shall be conducted in accordance with the mandatory instructions issued by the Central Election Commission of BiH.”

Only one representative of a political party can be a member of a Polling Station Committee.

Members of a Polling Station Committee are entitled to a salary. The decision on the amount of the salary shall be made by the Municipal Election Commission.

The decision on the amount of payment for the members of the Polling Station Committees for the conduct of the General Elections shall be made by Central Election Commission of BiH.

Article 2.20

The Polling Station Committee shall directly manage the conduct of the Polling Station, ensure the regularity and secrecy of the ballot and record the election results at the Polling Station.

The President of the Polling Station Committee shall ensure that the voting process at a Polling Station proceeds without impediments, in accordance with Chapters 5 and 7 of this law.

Article 2.21

Entity Election Commissions shall be created by Entity law in accordance with this law. Their competencies shall be determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in accordance with this law.

The manner of election and the composition of all other election commissions shall be determined by Entity law and in accordance with the provisions of this law.

Chapter 3

Voters Register

Article 3.1

The Central Voters Register constitutes the records of citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina who have the right to vote in accordance with this Law and shall be established, maintained and used for the following purposes: to organize and conduct elections in accordance with law, to conduct referendums, to conduct recalls of elected officials and to elect bodies of the Local Self-governance in accordance with law.

The Central Voters Register and excerpts from the Central Voters Register are public documents.

The right of access to the Central Voter Register shall be exercised in accordance with this Law.

Political entities certified for participation in elections, in accordance with this Law, shall be provided upon their request with an electronic or printed excerpt from the Central Voter Register for the level of government or for the electoral unit in which they participate in elections.

Article 3.2

The Central Voters Register is unique, permanent and shall be regularly updated.

The following citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be recorded in the Central Voter Register:

- a) those of age (18) or older;
- b) those who will become eighteen (18) years of age on the Election Day;
- c) those who have the right to vote in accordance with this Law, but are temporarily residing abroad; and
- d) those who have the right to vote as provided by Article 20.8, Paragraph 6 of this Law.

The Central Voters Register shall not contain names of BiH citizens whose full legal capacity has been withdrawn by the final and binding decision of a competent authority. In the event that such a person has already been recorded, he/she shall be deleted from the Central Voters Register, whereas in the event that the competent authority has issued the final and binding decision restoring his/her legal capacity, he/she shall be recorded in the Central Voter Register.

Article 3.3

The Central Voters Register shall be made and maintained on the basis of data from official records on permanent and temporary residence of citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina maintained by a competent State authority, from other public identification documents and official records on citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina maintained by the Central Election Commission of BiH and other competent authorities and on the basis of public documents and data received directly from citizens.

Article 3.4

The Central Voters Register shall be maintained and processed electronically.

The records of the Central Voters Register or its excerpts shall be available for access and data contained therein shall be processed by the same methodology and by using the same computer program, at all locations where the data are processed and collected for the purposes of the Central Voters Register.

5. one hundred (100) signatures of voters recorded in the Central Voter Register for the elections for the Municipal Council/Assembly and for the Mayor of Municipality.

6. five (5) % of signatures of voters recorded in the Central Voters Register for the election of Municipal Council/Assembly and for the election of the Head of Municipality, in the municipality in which the number of voters recorded in the Central Voters Register in the last elections held for that level of authority has not exceeded a thousand (1000) voters recorded in the Central Voters Register”.

Article 4.9

Except for the signature requirement established for the election for the members of the Presidency of Bosnia, an independent candidate who holds a mandate in the same body that he or she is standing for office shall be exempt from the signature requirement established in Article 4.8 of this law.

An independent candidate shall be exempt from the signature requirement established in Article 4.8 of this Law also in the event that he/she is standing as a candidate for office in a body of the same or lower levels of authority in comparison with the body in which the independent candidate already holds a mandate.

Article 4.10

An independent candidate shall submit his or her application for candidacy no later than one-hundred and thirty-five (135) days prior to the election and it shall contain: the name and surname, address, national identification number, date and signature of the independent candidate.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall certify the application of an independent candidate for participation in the elections if the application meets the requirements as established by this law not later than within 15 days following the date the application is received.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall examine within two (2) days whether the application was submitted in accordance with this law and certify, reject or request the candidate to correct his or her application.

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina identifies incorrect or incomplete information, or if it identifies any other deficiency or irregularity in the application in the sense of this law or of an act issued by the Central Election Commission of BiH, it shall notify the applicant thereof, who shall be bound to correct the information within two (2) days, after the date of receipt of such notification. Upon the expiration of this deadline, in the event that the independent candidate fails to remove the deficiency or irregularity from the application, the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not certify the application of that independent candidate for participation in the elections, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall decide whether or not to certify or reject the application for participation in the elections.

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina rejects the application, the applicant shall have the right to request the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina to reconsider the decision within two (2) days from the date of receipt of the decision. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision within three (3) days from the date of receipt of the request.

An independent candidate may not at the same time stand for office as an independent candidate in more than one electoral unit or run for office on a political party, list of independent candidates or coalition's candidates list.

An independent candidate may not withdraw his or her candidacy before the certification of the election results.

Article 4.11

In order to be certified for the elections a political party or independent candidate must present signatures of support as established in Articles 4.4 and 4.8 of this law. One voter may support only one political party or independent candidate on the signature of support form. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall regulate how the signatures of support shall be checked and verified.

Article 4.12

~~A coalition shall submit its application for certification no later than one hundred and ten (110) days before the date of the elections no later than within 7 (seven) days following the day the application is received.~~

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall certify the application of a coalition for participation in the elections if it meets the requirements as established by this law.

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina identifies incorrect or incomplete information, or if it identifies any other deficiency or irregularity in the application in the sense of this law or of an act issued by the Central Election Commission of BiH it shall notify the applicant thereof, who shall correct the information within two (2) days, after the date of receipt of such notification. Upon the expiration of this deadline, in the event that the coalition fails to remove the deficiency or irregularity from the application, the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not certify the application of that coalition for participation in the elections the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall decide whether or not to certify or reject the application for participation in the elections.

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina rejects the application, the applicant shall have the right to request the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina to reconsider the decision within two (2) days from the date of receipt of the decision. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision within three (3) days from the date of receipt of the request.

Article 4.13

A political party that is a member of a coalition cannot participate as a member of another coalition or as a separate political party in the same electoral unit.

A coalition shall have the status of a political party in the electoral process from the day the coalition certification for participation in the elections is submitted to until the election results are certified. A political party that is a member of a coalition, may not withdraw from the certified coalition until the election results are certified.

Article 4.14

A coalition may keep its previous certified coalition name only if it consists of the same political parties that comprised the certified coalition in the previous election.

Article 4.15

For the elections at all levels of authority two (2) or more certified independent candidates may join together and submit a single candidates list under one name. The list of independent candidates shall submit its application for certification no later than one hundred and ten (110) days before the date of the elections.

~~The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall certify the list of independent candidates' application for participation in the elections if it meets the requirements as established by this law no later than within seven (7) days following the date the application is received.~~

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina identifies incorrect or incomplete information, or if it identifies any other deficiency or irregularity in the application in the sense of this law or of an act issued by the Central Election Commission of BiH it shall notify the applicant thereof, who shall correct the information within two (2) days, after the date of receipt of such notification. Upon the expiration of this deadline, in the event that the leader of the list of independent candidates fails to remove the deficiency or irregularity from the application, the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not certify the application of that applicant for participation in the elections the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall decide whether or not to certify or reject the application for participation in the elections.

If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina rejects the application, the applicant shall have the right to request the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina to reconsider the decision within two (2) days from the date of receipt of the decision. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision within three (3) days from the date of receipt of the request.

Article 4.16

A political party or independent candidate shall enclose a proof that the government stamps have been paid with its application for certification in the amount determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina for every election. The cash amount paid as the Certification fee shall be refunded if a political party or independent candidate wins at least one mandate in the elections or if the application is rejected. For the purposes of this article a mandate won by a coalition or independent candidates list shall be deemed to have been won by each individual political party in the coalition or each individual independent candidate on the independent candidates list, regardless of which party in the coalition or which independent candidate on the list of independent candidates actually received the mandate.

Article 4.17

A political party, coalition, independent candidate or list of independent candidates shall enclose all the necessary documentation and information as established by this law with each application in order to certify its participation in the elections.

Article 4.18

The certified political party, coalition or list of independent candidates shall submit to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina the candidates lists for certification.

deleted

Article 4.19

The certified political party or coalition shall submit a separate candidates list for each electoral unit.

For the municipal and cantonal elections the number of candidates on the candidates list of the political party, coalition or list of independent candidates may be ten percent (10%) higher than the number of mandates that are to be allocated.

For the multi-member constituencies established in Chapters 9, 10 and 11 of this law and Mostar City Council the number of candidates on the candidates list of a political party or coalition may be two (2) higher than the number of mandates that are to be allocated in that multi-member constituency.

Every candidates list shall include candidates of male and female gender. The minority gender candidates shall be distributed on the candidates list in the following manner. At least one (1) minority gender candidate amongst the first two (2) candidates, two (2) minority gender candidates amongst the first five (5) candidates, and three (3) minority gender candidates amongst the first eight (8) candidates et seq. The number of minority gender candidates shall be at least equal to the total number of candidates on the list, divided by three (3) rounded up to the closest higher integer.

The candidates list shall contain: the name, surname of every candidate on the list, their personal identification number (JMBG number), permanent residence address, declared affiliation with a particular constituent people or group of "Others", valid ID card number and place of issue, signature of the president of the political party or presidents of the political parties in the coalition. The statement of each of the candidates on the list validating the acceptance of candidacy shall be along with the proposed lists. This statement must be certified in the way described by law".

The declaration of affiliation with the particular constituent people or the group of "Others" referred to in the above Paragraph shall be used as the grounds for the exercise of rights to hold an elected or appointed office for which the statement of ethnic affiliation with the particular constituent people or the group of "Others" is a condition in the election cycle for which the candidates list has been submitted.

A candidate shall be entitled not to declare his or her ethnic affiliation with a particular constituent people of the group of "Others" on the candidacy list. However, any such failure to declare the personal affiliation shall be considered as a waiver of the right to an elected or appointed office for which the declaration of affiliation with the particular constituent people of the group of "Others" is a condition.

If the number of candidates on the candidates list exceeds the number required by Paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article or if the candidates list fails to meet the requirements established in Paragraph 4, the Central Election Commission of BiH shall certify the candidate list up to the number fulfilling the requirements established by this Law.

Article 4.20

The name of a candidate on a political party, coalition or independent candidates list may not be withdrawn after the candidates list is certified by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. If the candidate is incapacitated or rejects the mandate after the election results are certified by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the name of the candidate shall be removed from the candidates list and the mandate shall be allocated in accordance with Article 9.11, except for lists in cantons and municipalities which shall be allocated in accordance with Article 13.5 The candidate, or in the event that the candidate is incapacitated, his or her representative must submit the rejection of the mandate in writing to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. A candidate may not withdraw his or her candidacy before the certification of the election results.

Article 4.21

Political parties, lists of independent candidates and coalition's candidates lists must be submitted to the Central Election Commission of BiH referenced in Article 4.18 of this law no later than ninety (90) days prior to the elections.

deleted

No later than twenty-five (25) days after a candidates list has been submitted to it, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall review the candidates list and shall certify or reject candidates on the list. The Election Commission of Bosnia & Herzegovina shall notify the political party, coalition or list of independent candidates of any rejected individual candidates. A political party, coalition, or list of independent candidates shall have five (5) days after the date of receipt such notification to correct a candidates list by replacing candidates or providing further documentation if requested by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

~~If the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina further rejects any individual candidates on the candidates list, the political party, coalition or independent candidates list shall have the right to request, within two (2) days after the date of receipt of the decision of the rejection, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina to reconsider the decision. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision within three (3) days.~~

From the certification of the candidates lists until the mandate of the body expires, the political party, coalition or list of independent candidates may not amend the candidates list.

Article 4.22

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall keep the record of the applications for certification for participation in the elections.

All changes of data kept in the record of applications for certification for participation in the elections shall be reported to the Election Commission of BiH by a political party, coalition, independent candidate and list of independent candidates within ten (10) days of the date of the change.

Article 4.23

After the certification of the submitted candidates lists the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall publish a list of candidates with the names of the certified political parties, coalitions, independent candidates and lists of independent candidates for each election in the sequence of the lottery number resulting from the lottery established in Article 5.15 of this law. The lists of candidates shall be published no later than forty-five (45) days before the election day in the official gazettes. The candidates lists shall also be posted at the Polling Stations and published in the media.

Following the certification of the candidates lists and until such time as the printing of ballots has commenced, a political party, coalition and independent candidate list shall be entitled to replace a candidate on the list only in case of death of the candidate or if in the meanwhile the candidate has become incompetent for candidacy as provided by this Law".

If the political party, coalition or independent candidate fails to replace such candidates within the required period of time, the Central Election Commission of BiH shall remove the candidates from the list referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article and that candidates list shall be considered complete and certified.

Article 4.24

Each political party and coalition certified to submit candidates for the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, or the National Assembly of the Republika Srpska shall submit a list of candidates for compensatory mandates to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Such list shall be submitted for each of the bodies listed above for which the political party or coalition is certified, within five (5) days of the date of certification of the candidates' lists, as per Article 4.21 of this Law.

The list of candidates for compensatory mandates shall include only the names of candidates already included on the regular candidates lists submitted by the political party or coalition for one or more multi-member constituencies. Candidates on a list of candidates for compensatory mandates may be from the list of any multi-member constituency within the same entity and at the same electoral level. Lists of candidates for compensatory mandates shall comply with paragraph four of Article 4.19.

Lists of candidates for compensatory mandates shall not be published on the ballot, but shall only be used for purposes of awarding compensatory mandates pursuant to Articles 9.8, 10.6, and 11.6. The lists shall be published by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 4.25

For the purpose of this Chapter, each document or writ submitted to the Central Election Commission by a political party, coalition, independent candidate or independent candidate list shall be considered valid only if it is signed by the person/s indicated in the application for certification as persons authorized for representation and whose signatures are deposited with the Central Election Commission of BiH.

For the purpose of this Chapter, the Central Election Commission of BiH shall have all relations with political parties, coalitions, independent candidate and lists of independent candidates exclusively through the head office of the political party, coalition, independent candidate or independent candidate lists or through a person authorized to represent them before the Central Election Commission of BiH.

Chapter 5

Conduct of Elections

Article 5.1

Voting shall be conducted at Polling Stations, unless provided otherwise by this law.

The Polling Stations shall be designated by the Municipal Election Commission no later than sixty five (65) days before the election day. The Municipal Election Commission, immediately after designating the Polling Stations, shall submit a list of the locations of the Polling Stations to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may change the location of a Polling Station if it determines that the location is not an appropriate location for polling.

A Polling Station may not be located in a place of worship, a government building, a building which is owned by or is the seat of a political party, or a building that has been used as a place of torture or abuse, or premises in which alcohol is served and consumed.

Each Polling Station shall be designated by a serial number.

The Municipal Election Commission shall publicise, no later than fifteen (15) days before the election day, which Polling Stations have been designated for voting and where the voters will cast their votes.

Article 5.2

A Polling Station shall be designated in accordance with the number of voters, which should not be greater than one thousand (1000), taking into consideration the distance of voters from the Polling Station.

The room designated for polling shall have special space which ensures the secrecy of ballot.

The Municipal Election Commission shall ensure, in a timely manner, that the premises designated to be a Polling Station are prepared and open during the time specified for the voting.

For the purposes of this law, "Polling Station and surrounding area" shall include the area within fifty (50) metres of the entrance of a building in which a Polling Station is located.

Article 5.3

The Municipal Election Commission, as directed by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, shall deliver, no later than twelve (12) hours prior to the opening of polling stations on election day, the polling material to the Polling Station Committee, including the required number of ballot boxes, the required number of ballots, the required number of candidates lists, the excerpt from the Central Voters Register for a specific Polling Station, and the form of the Polling Station committee Poll Book whereof the minutes shall be made, signed by all Polling Station Committee members.

In the event that the polling material referred to in the previous Paragraph is not delivered as complete and correct, the Polling Station Committee shall inform the Municipal Election Commission thereof, and the Municipal Election Commission shall be required to remove all detected deficiencies without delay, but not later than by the time the Polling Station is opened.

The Polling Station Committee shall be responsible for security of the polling material from its receipt until the Polling Station Committee has completed all its duties after the close of the Polling Station, and polling materials have been delivered to the Municipal Election Commission, in accordance with this law.

Article 5.4

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall provide to the Polling Station Committee a sufficient number of ballots, which shall include a number of extra ballots in addition to the number of ballots needed for voters of that Polling Station according to the excerpt from the Central Voters Register. The manner in which all ballots issued to a Polling Station are accounted for shall be defined in Regulations issued by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The number of ballots received and distributed to Polling Stations shall be verified by the competent Municipal Election Commission in accordance with Regulations issued by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall issue Regulations for the control of ballots.

Article 5.5

All members of the Polling Station Committee or their deputies must attend the entire process of voting, including establishment of voting results.

Article 5.6

The President of a Polling Station Committee, together with the other members of the Polling Station Committee, shall take care of order at the Polling Station and the surrounding area. If order at a Polling Station is breached, the President of a Polling Station Committee may require assistance by the police. Voting shall be suspended while police are present at the Polling Station.

The President of a Polling Station Committee may expel from the Polling Station and surrounding area any person disrupting order at the Polling Station. Any expulsion from the Polling Station shall be recorded in the Polling Station Poll Book. The Polling Station Committee shall decide on expulsion of an observer accredited under Chapter 17 of this law.

It is not allowed to carry weapons or dangerous objects at the Polling Station and surrounding area, except for police officers in cases referred to in paragraph 1 of this article.

It is not allowed to bring to the Polling Station and the surrounding area political insignia and symbols.

Article 5.7

A Poll Book shall be kept during the voting process. The Poll Book is a written document in which information related to voting and other events occurring at the Polling Station and the surrounding area, from the opening of the Polling Station until the establishing of the voting results, is recorded. The form of the Poll Book shall be regulated by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The following information shall be recorded in the Poll Book:

1. a list of all election material and the quantities thereof delivered to the Polling Station;
2. a list of all accredited observers at the Polling Station;
3. observations on all important events occurring at the Polling Station; and
4. all information required by this law to be recorded in the Poll Book.

A member of the Polling Station Committee, a voter or an accredited observer shall be entitled to enter into the Poll Book his or her opinion or objections concerning the voting process or deliver them in writing, and receive a receipt issued by the President of the Polling Station committee certifying the submission of such objections. In addition, the President may also inform thereof the Municipal Election Commission. If the person has not signed the Poll Book personally then his or her opinion or objections will not be considered.

If a member of the Polling Station Committee, a voter or an accredited observer is prevented from entering his/her opinions or objections into the Poll Book, such opinions or objections may then be communicated by them to the Municipal Election Commission.

Article 5.8

Before the polls open, and in the presence of accredited observers, the Polling Station Committee in the composition as foreseen in the Article 5.5 of this law shall:

1. display the empty ballot boxes and seal them;
2. count and record on the appropriate forms the total number of voters for the Polling Station based on the excerpt from the Central Voters Register; and
3. count and record on the appropriate forms the total number of all ballots received by the Polling Station.

Article 5.9

Voting shall last continuously during the day commencing at 0700 hours and ending at 1900 hours. If there is a disturbance of the order, the President of the Polling Station Committee may interrupt the polling until order is restored. The reasons and causes of the interruption of polling shall be entered into the Poll Book of the Polling Station Committee.

The Polling Station shall close at 1900 hours. Voters who are in line at the Polling Station at the time of closing shall be allowed to cast their vote.

If the polling was interrupted because of the disturbance of order for three (3) hours or less, the polling shall be prolonged for the period of the interruption, which shall be decided by the President of the Polling Station Committee. If the interruption is more than three (3) hours, then the Municipal Election Commission shall decide the length of time for which polling shall be prolonged.

If the Polling Station is not opened on time, the voting in that Polling Station may be extended by the length of time which the delay lasted if the delay is three (3) hours or less. If the delay is more than three (3) hours, then the Municipal Election Commission shall decide the length of time for which voting shall be extended.

Article 5.10

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the competent authorities responsible for the conduct of elections shall ensure that the voting shall be secret and shall be conducted in person, by the way of a ballot.

Article 5.11

Members of the Polling Station Committee shall explain to the voter the manner of polling and ensure secrecy of the voting.

Members of the Polling Station Committee shall not exert influence on the decision of the voter.

Article 5.12

A voter shall cast his or her ballot at the Polling Station where he or she is entered into the excerpt from the Central Voters Register.

If a voter has the right to vote in accordance with this law, for his or her 1991 municipality, the voter may vote at an absentee Polling Station.

The president or a member of the Polling Station Committee shall determine the identity of the voter on the basis of a valid identification document.

A valid identification document, in terms of the preceding paragraph, shall be one of the following which includes a photograph:

identification card;

passport;

driver's license;

(deleted)

If a voter has changed his or her name, he or she shall be obliged to present a certificate of name change issued by the competent body, in addition to one of the above stated identification documents.

Article 5.13

A member of the Polling Station Committee shall be obliged to identify the voter, shall mark his or her name and surname in the excerpt from the Central Voters Register, the voter shall sign the excerpt from the Central Voters Register and a member of the Polling Station Committee shall issue the appropriate ballot(s).

The signature of a voter in the excerpt of the Central Voter Register must correspond to the signature on the identification document the voter presented to the Polling Station committee member, and it is the responsibility of the member of the Polling Station Committee to ascertain that.

Article 5.14

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall determine the format and layout (form and contents) of the ballots for direct elections at all levels of authority in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The ballot shall allow a voter to vote for only one of the following options:

1. an independent candidate, if there are any; or
2. a political party, coalition, or independent candidates list, if there are any; or
3. within one list of candidates of one political party, coalition, or list of independent candidates, the opportunity to mark one or more candidates on the one list chosen by the voter. Where a voter has validly marked one or more candidates on one list, the list shall be considered to have received one valid vote for the purpose of allocating mandates.

A voter may cast his or her vote only as provided in this article.

Article 5.15

A ballot shall contain only the following elements:

1. date of the election;
2. name of the body for which election is being made;
3. names of political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates designated with the marking as 'independent candidate and independent candidates in the sequence specified in the collective list based on the lottery conducted to determine their order on the ballot, and names of all the candidates; and
4. instructions on the manner of using and marking the ballot.

A lottery number shall be drawn for each political party, coalition, list of independent candidates and independent candidate to determine their order on the ballot. The lottery number shall be used for the political party or coalition at every level of elections in which this political party or coalition appears on the ballot. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall publicise the location, date, and time at which the lottery for ballot order shall be held. Representatives of political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates, independent candidates, and other accredited observers may attend the lottery.

Article 5.16

A voter shall vote in a special place which ensures the secrecy of the voting.

Article 5.17

A ballot shall be invalid if:

1. it is not completed or is completed in such a way that it is not possible to reliably ascertain for which political party, coalition, independent candidate, list of independent candidates a voter has cast his or her vote; or

2. names of candidates have been added in writing; or
3. more than one political party, coalition, or independent candidate or list of independent candidates has been marked; or
4. the voter can be identified based on markings added by the voter to the ballot, such as a signature; or
5. the voter marks the ballot in a manner other than as provided by Article 5.14.

Article 5.18

If a voter cannot be found on the excerpt from the Central Voters Register because the voter registered to vote out of country and has returned to vote in person in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the voter's name will be added to a special form that consists of all the categories of data as the excerpt of the Central Voters Register. The voter will sign the excerpt of the Central Voters Register, and the voter will have the right to vote by tendered ballot in accordance with the other provisions of this law.

The voter's identification documentation shall be retained until the voter returns the tendered ballot in the sealed envelope. The voter's ballot will be placed in a special envelope by the voter, on which is written information from which the voter's right to vote can be verified, and which shall be sealed before being placed by the voter in the ballot box. After the close of the polling and after opening the ballot boxes in accordance with this law, the Polling Station Committee shall count the number of tendered ballots found in the ballot box and record the number in the Poll Book and shall package and forward all sealed envelopes to the Municipal Election Commission. The Municipal Election Commission shall forward the packages of sealed envelopes from each Polling Station in the municipality to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall confirm that the voter is registered to vote out of country and the voter's right to vote before the envelope is opened and the ballot is counted. If it cannot be confirmed that the voter is registered to vote out of country and has the right to vote, then the envelope shall not be opened or counted.

Article 5.19

Upon request of voters who are blind, illiterate or bodily incapacitated, the President of the Polling Station Committee shall approve the procedure wherein another person, selected by the voter concerned, may assist the voter in signing the excerpt from the Central Voters Register, and casting his or her ballot.

The helping person may not be a member of the Polling Station Committee, an accredited observer, or an observer of a political party, coalition, list of independent candidate or independent candidate.

The person helping the voter shall print his or her name and sign the excerpt from the Central Voters Register next to the name of the voter whom he or she assisted. The person helping the voter does not need to be a registered voter.

A person may, in terms of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article, help only one voter.

Article 5.20

In the event that a ballot is spoiled in the course of voting, the Polling Station Committee shall issue a new ballot to the voter and place the spoiled one in a special envelope marked "spoiled ballots".

Article 5.21

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who has the right to vote and is abroad shall have the right to vote by mail. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall regulate the manner and procedure of voting by citizens by mail.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations for voting by citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina who have the right to vote and are homebound due to old age, illness or disability, or are prisoners or confined to institutions.

Article 5.22

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations for counting ballots and establishing the voting results for ballots cast by voters who have voted by tendered ballots, absentee ballots, ballots cast by prisoners or voters confined to institutions, and homebound voters unable to come to the Polling Station due to age, illness or disability, and ballots cast by mail.

All ballots shall be counted at the Polling Stations, except where the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina determines that ballots should be counted at one or more centralised counting centres. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations for counting ballots and establishing the results at a centralised counting centre. The voting results at a centralised counting centre shall be posted at the counting centre so that the results can be publicly viewed, and the copies of voting results shall be delivered to accredited observers at the centralized counting upon their request.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina on the basis of an open competition shall appoint a director of the Centralised Counting Centre and three deputies. The director and deputies shall be from different constituent peoples of Bosnia and Herzegovina and one shall be a representative of Others. The director and deputies shall be persons with a minimum of three years of experience in conducting the elections and may not be active members of any political party.

Ballots shall be counted in a manner that would not violate the secrecy of the vote.

Article 5.23

When ballots are counted at the Polling Station, after completion of the voting process and closure of the Polling Station, the Polling Station Committee shall start establishing the voting results.

The Polling Station Committee shall count first unused and spoiled ballots and put them into separate packages to be sealed.

The Polling Station Committee shall then count separately, the number of voters who signed the excerpts from the Central Voters Register, the number of voters who signed the special form described in Article 5.18 of this law, and the total number of voters who appeared at the Polling Station to vote, and shall record this information on the appropriate forms. The Polling Station Committee shall then open ballot boxes one by one, and count the total number of tendered ballot envelopes, if applicable, and the total number of regular ballots contained in the ballot box. The Polling Station Committee shall then count the number of valid votes cast for each political party, coalition, list of independent candidates, independent candidate, and the number of votes for each candidate on a candidates' list, and the number of invalid ballots.

Article 5.24

After the close of an absentee Polling Station, the Polling Station Committee shall classify the ballots according to municipalities for which the voters voted, and forward them to the competent Election Commissions. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall regulate the manner and procedure of classifying the ballots according to the Municipalities as well as their forwarding to the competent Election Commissions.

Article 5.25

Except in the case in which the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina determines that the count shall be fully or partly conducted in counting centres in accordance with Article 5.22 paragraph 2 of this law, the following information shall be recorded on the appropriate forms by the Polling Station Committee after the close of the Polling Station and the counting procedures have been completed:

1. the total number of all ballots cast;
2. the total number of valid votes cast for each political party, coalition, list of independent candidates and independent candidate;
3. the total number of votes for each individual candidate on a candidates list;
4. the total number of invalid ballots, stating separately the number of ballots that are invalid because they are blank and the number of ballots that are invalid due to markings;
5. the total number of spoiled ballots;
6. the total number of tendered ballots contained in the ballot box if appropriate; and
7. the total number of unused ballots.

The Polling Station Poll Book and the appropriate forms shall be signed by all members of the Polling Station Committee. If a member refuses to sign, then the President or one of the signing members shall record this and the reason the member will not sign, and copies of voting results shall be delivered to accredited observers of activities of the Polling Station Committee, upon their request.

Article 5.26

After the establishment of the voting results, a Polling Station Committee shall forward immediately to the competent Municipal Election Commission, and no later than twelve (12) hours after the close of the Polling Station, the Polling Station Poll Book, the excerpt from the Central Voters Register, all the special forms described in Article 5.18 of this law, all tendered ballots, valid ballots, invalid ballots, separately unused and spoiled ballots, and all other forms required by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The President of the Polling Station Committee shall retain a copy of the report of results.

The President of the Polling Station Committee shall post the voting results at the Polling Station so that the results can be publicly viewed.

The Polling Station Committee shall deliver all remaining election materials to the Municipal Election Commission.

Article 5.27

On the receipt of all the election related documents and materials from the Polling Station Committees, the Municipal Election Commission shall establish a consolidated summary of the results of voting within the area of the municipality for the bodies at all levels of authority at which the elections were conducted and shall make a report accordingly, which shall be submitted to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina within twenty-four (24) hours after closing of the polls. The consolidated summary of results for the municipality shall contain the same information as required under Article 5.25 of this law. A copy of the consolidated summary of results shall be retained by the Municipal Election Commission, and shall be distributed to the other electoral bodies as defined in Regulations of the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Municipal Election Commission shall post the consolidated summary of the results so that the consolidated summary can be publicly viewed, and copies of comprehensive voting results shall be delivered to accredited observers of activities of the Municipal Election Commission, upon their request.

Article 5.28

While establishing the election results for the bodies at each level of authority, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall take into account a ballot cast by mail by a voter abroad, provided the ballot is delivered to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina by postal authorities by a time and date to be determined by the Election Commission in its regulations. In order to be acceptable, the ballots are to be postmarked by election day.

By mail ballots that are not delivered in compliance with the previous paragraph shall not be counted.

In order for a timely delivered by mail ballot to be counted, it must be returned by a voter who has been determined to be properly registered to vote by mail, sealed in the ballot envelope to ensure secrecy of the person's vote, and accompanied by a copy of an identification document described in Article 5.12 of this law.

Article 5.29

The Central Election Commission of BiH shall verify the results of all direct and indirect elections covered by this Law, after the expiry of the deadline for filing the appeals/complaints, or after the decisions have become final and binding, within the period of 30 days of the Election Day.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations for the validation of the election results.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall provide in its Regulations the order of establishing the election results for the bodies of authority at every level, (deleted) the manner of making the detailed tabulation of results available to the public and announcing the election results. The detailed tabulation of election results, without violating the secrecy of the vote required by Article 5.10, shall include results at the polling station level.

Article 5.30

After the announcement of the election results by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, a Municipal Election Commission, a certified political party, coalition, list of independent candidates, or independent candidate may request that a recount of ballots be conducted by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in specified electoral units in which the political party, coalition, list of independent candidates, or independent candidate stood for election. An accredited observer may request that a recount of ballots be conducted by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in a Polling Station at which the observer observed. A certified political party, coalition, list of independent candidates, independent candidate, or observer may also request that a recount of ballots be conducted by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina of absentee ballots, ballots cast outside Bosnia and Herzegovina or tendered ballots.

A group of fifty (50) or more voters who voted at the same Polling Station may request that a recount of ballots be conducted by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the Polling Station at which they voted.

A Municipal Election Commission may request that a recount of ballots be conducted by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina in a Polling Station in its municipality.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall consider a request for recount if the request meets each of the following requirements:

1. the request is in writing and signed by the accredited observer, group of fifty (50) or more voters who voted at the same Polling Station, independent candidate, president of the political party, leaders of the list of independent candidates, any of the presidents of political parties which formed a coalition or a majority of the members of the Municipal Election Commission;
2. the request states with specificity the facts which justify a recount, including the specific articles of this law which were disregarded or violated;
3. the request states with specificity the approximate number of ballots believed to have been affected;
4. the request states how the results would have been affected by the violation of this law, and
5. the request is presented to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina within three (3) days of the date the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina announced the election results.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may order a recount, on its own initiative, even if no request for recount has been made under paragraph 1 of this article or if the request for recount has been deemed invalid under paragraph 3 of this article.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall order a recount if it is established that this law was violated and the violation affected the allocation of mandates.

Article 5.31

In the event the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina orders a recount of the ballots, it shall specify the ballots which shall be the subject of the recount and the dates, locations, and procedures for the recount. Candidates of the political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates and independent candidates appearing on the ballot for which a recount is being conducted, and other accredited observers may be present for the recount.

Article 5.32

After completion of a recount of ballots, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish the election results for the bodies of authority at all levels.

Chapter 6

Protection of the Electoral Right

Article 6.1

Protection of the electoral right shall be secured by the election commissions and the Appellate Division of the Court of BiH.

Article 6.2

Any voter and any political entity whose right established by this law, is violated, may file a complaint with the election commission not later than within 48 hours after the violation occurred.

The election commissions may, upon receiving information concerning the violations, initiate a procedure by virtue of its authority against a political entity and employees of the election administration because of the violations of the code of conduct set out in Article 7.3 of this Law.

The initiative for the procedure, in the terms of Paragraph 2 of this Article, may be launched by a legal or natural entity through the competent Municipal Election Commission, in a written form, where information on the place, the time, the content of the violation and the name of the perpetrator shall be mandatory information.

Article 6.3

The complaint shall be filed in writing. It shall contain a brief description of the violation and, as an attachment, the evidence that confirms the allegations of the complaint. The complaint also must be signed by the complainant. If the complainant is a political party or a coalition, it shall be signed by the President or the authorised representative of the political party or the coalition, with the authorization attached to the complaint.

The authorised representative of a political party is considered to be the President of the municipal organisational unit of the political party or the person authorised under the statute. If a municipal organisational unit of a political party has not been established at the municipal level, the authorised representative shall be considered to be the President of the organisational unit of the political party at a higher level. The authorised representative of a coalition shall be considered to be the President of the municipal organisational unit of one of the parties members of the coalition or the person authorised under statute.

The complaint shall be sent to all parties that are named. The parties named in the complaint shall have the opportunity to respond in writing within 24 hours after receiving the complaint. The authorised bodies may order a hearing of the parties.

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Rules of Procedure for adjudicating complaints filed with any election commission.

The complaint, which has been filed by an unauthorised person under Article 6.2 of this Law or which has been filed untimely or is incomplete, shall be rejected.

The complaint shall also be rejected if it is impossible to establish who has submitted the complaint. The filed complaint or appeal in the procedure of protection of the electoral right shall not postpone the conduct of election-related activities prescribed by this Law.

Article 6.4

The Municipal Election Commission shall have first instance competence in its municipality to decide complaints submitted for violation of the code of conduct referred to in Chapter 7, with an exemption from violations referred to in Article 7.3, Paragraph 1, Sub-paragraph 7 and Article 7.4, Paragraph 1, Sub-paragraph 3 of this Law, subject to decision of the Central Election Commission of BiH.

The Municipal Election Commission shall adjudicate the complaint and make a decision no later than within forty-eight (48) hours from the expiration of the deadline referred to in Article 6.3 Paragraph 3 of this law. It shall immediately notify the complainant and the other parties of the decision.

The complaint, which has been filed by an unauthorised person under Article 6.2 of this Law or has been filed untimely, shall be rejected.

Article 6.5

The Municipal Election Commission may order measures to correct irregularities referred to in the complaint from Article 6.4 of this Law, including, but not limited to adding or deleting voters from the Central Voter Register, removing the person working on the voters registration or in the Polling Station Committee, or ordering certain person or a party to cease the activities that violate this Law.

Article 6.6

The Central Election Commission of BiH shall have first instance competence to decide complaints submitted for violation of the rules of election process, electoral rights, Chapter 16 and Article 6.4 of this Law.

Decisions of all election commissions may be appealed to the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Central Election Commission of BiH shall adjudicate the complaint and appeal and make a decision no later than within forty-eight (48) hours from the expiration of the deadline referred to in Article 6.3 Paragraph 3 of this Law. The Central Election Commission of BiH shall immediately notify the complainant and the other parties of its decision.

The complaint which has been filed by an unauthorised person under Article 6.2 of this Law or which has been filed untimely, shall be rejected.

When adjudicating an appeal or complaint, the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may proceed on the facts established or may conduct hearings. The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may allow parties to present new evidence or base their decisions on the written record of the lower instance commissions.

Article 6.7

The Central Election Commission of BiH shall have the authority, in adjudicating appeals and complaints, to order the election commission, the Voters Registration Centre or the Polling Station Committee to undertake measures to correct established irregularities. The Central Election Commission of BiH shall have the authority to impose the following penalties:

1. fines not to exceed ten thousand (10,000) convertible marks;
2. removal of a candidate from a candidates list when it is determined that the candidate was personally responsible for the violation;
3. de-certification of a political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate(s); and
4. prohibition to an individual to work in a Polling Station, the Voters Registration Centre, or the Municipal Election Commission or another election commission as established pursuant to Article 2.21 of this law.

Article 6.8

If an election commission believes that a criminal act has been committed concerning the electoral process, it shall report the act to the competent Public Prosecutor.

When submitting the report, the election commission shall also refer to the evidence that is known to it, as well as undertake the necessary measures to preserve the traces of the alleged criminal act, objects with which or by use of which the alleged criminal act has been committed and other evidence.

Article 6.9

The Appellate Division of the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be competent to hear appeals against decisions of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina. An appeal shall be submitted to the Appellate Division of the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina no later than 2 days after a decision of the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina is received.

An appeal shall be submitted through the Central Election Commission of BiH.

Appellate Division of the BiH Court is obliged to make a decision on an appeal within three (3) days from the day of the receipt of the appeal.

Chapter 7

Rules of Conduct in the Election Campaign

Article 7.1

Political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates and independent candidates have the right to:

1. conduct the election campaign in a peaceful environment;
2. organise and hold public meetings in which they can freely express their positions in order to gain support from the voters; and
3. publish and distribute placards, posters and other materials related to the election campaign.

For the purposes of public meetings as stated in sub-paragraph (2) of the previous paragraph, permits from the competent body shall not be required, but the organiser shall notify the competent body responsible for public order and peace twenty-four (24) hours prior to holding such an event.

In case that two or more organisers announced to the competent body holding of their public meetings at the same time and place, the holding of a public meeting at that time and place shall be permitted to the organiser which notified the competent body in writing of the holding of the public meeting first.

Article 7.2

The competent bodies are obliged to ensure equitable treatment of political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates certified for participation in elections and independent candidates in their requests to use public places and public facilities for campaign purposes, including holding meetings, display of notices, placards, and posters and other materials which have such purpose.

It is forbidden to remove, cover, destroy or alter any printed notice, placard, poster or other materials, which are in accordance with the law and are used for the purpose of election campaigning by political parties, coalitions, list of independent candidates, or independent candidates.

Competent bodies shall not allow political parties, coalitions, list of independent candidates and independent candidates to display notices, placards and posters, or to place their names or slogans related to the election campaign in or on government buildings, on or above public roads, and on traffic signs.

Article 7.3

Candidates and supporters of political parties, lists of independent candidates, and coalitions, as well as independent candidates and their supporters, and election administration officials are not allowed to:

1. carry or display weapons at political meetings, Polling Stations and the surrounding area, or during any gatherings related to the activities of political parties, coalitions, list of independent candidates and independent candidates in the election process;
2. disturb gatherings of other political parties, coalitions and independent candidates, as well as to incite others to conduct such activities;
3. prevent journalists from carrying out their duties, in accordance with the rights of their profession and the election rules;
4. promise any financial reward with the purpose of gaining support of voters, or to threaten supporters of other political parties, coalitions, list of independent candidates or independent candidates;
5. induce a person to vote who does not have the legal right to vote;
6. induce a person to vote more than once in the same election, or to vote in the name of another person; or
7. use language which could provoke or incite someone to violence or spread hatred, or to publish or use pictures, symbols or any other materials that could have such effect.

Impersonating any political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate is prohibited.

Article 7.4

~~Commencing twenty-four (24) hours prior to opening of the Polling Stations, and until they close, political parties, coalitions, list of independent candidates and independent candidates are prohibited from engaging in public political activity, which includes but is not limited to:~~

1. holding meetings for the purpose of election campaigning;
2. presenting at the Polling Station and the surrounding area, any kind of materials for the purpose of influencing voters;
3. using national and international means of communication intended to influence voters
4. using megaphones or other public address systems for the purpose of influencing voters
5. any activity that interferes with or obstructs the election process.

Means of communication referred to in sub-paragraph 3 of Paragraph 1 of this article include means that can deliver audio, video or textual contents. Such means include but are not limited to Radio and TV program, printed media, the Internet, SMS-messages or video messages delivered over the mobile phones etc.

Chapter 8

Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 8.1

The members of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina directly elected from the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina – one Bosniak and one Croat shall be elected by voters recorded in the Central Voters Register to vote for the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. A voter recorded in the Central Voters Register to vote in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina may vote for either the Bosniak or Croat Member of the Presidency, but not for both. The Bosniak and Croat member that gets the highest number of votes among candidates from the same constituent people shall be elected.

The member of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina that shall be directly elected from the territory of RS - one Serb shall be elected by voters recorded in the Central Voters Register to vote in the Republika Srpska. Candidate who gets the highest number of votes shall be elected.

The mandate for the members of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be four (4) years.

Article 8.2

The "ticket", for the purposes of this chapter, shall consist of the name of the candidate for the member of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 8.3

The Chair of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be changed every eight (8) months by the principles of rotation among the members of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 8.4

If a Member of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina vacates his or her office for any reason, or is unable to permanently or temporary carry out his or her functions due to incapacitation, then the Member's replacement for the Presidency shall succeed to the office of Presidency held by the Member in accordance with the Law on Filling a Vacant Position of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina during the mandate (Official Gazette BiH No. 21/00).

Article 8.5

Mandate of a new member of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be completed when the mandate of the replaced member would be completed. The new Member of the Presidency shall assume the rights, duties, and responsibilities of the Member of the Presidency he or she succeeds to, including Chairmanship of sessions of the Presidency.

Article 8.6

It shall require a decision of the Constitutional Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina to determine that a Member of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina is unable to permanently carry out his or her functions due to incapacitation.

Article 8.7

The Constitutional Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina may decide that a Member of the Presidency is unable to carry out his or her functions due to temporary incapacitation.

In the event that a Member of the Presidency is unable to carry out his or her functions due to temporary incapacitation, as determined under paragraph 1 of this article, then the Member's replacement shall assume the rights, duties, and responsibilities of the incapacitated Member of the Presidency until a decision is made by the Constitutional Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina that this Member is no longer temporarily incapacitated.

Chapter 9

Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Subchapter A

House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 9.1

The House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall consist of forty-two (42) members, twenty-eight (28) of whom shall be directly elected by voters registered to vote for the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and fourteen (14) of whom shall be directly elected by voters registered to vote for the territory of the Republika Srpska. The mandate of members of the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be four (4) years.

Of the twenty-eight (28) members who shall be directly elected by voters registered to vote for the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, twenty-one (21) shall be elected from multi-member constituencies under the proportional representation formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law, and seven (7) shall be compensatory mandates elected from the territory of the Federation as a whole according to Article 9.7 of this law.

Of the fourteen (14) members who shall be directly elected by voters registered to vote for the territory of the Republika Srpska, nine (9) shall be elected from multi-member constituencies under the proportional representation formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law, and five (5) shall be compensatory mandates elected from the territory of the Republika Srpska as a whole according to Article 9.7 of this law.

A voter shall have one ballot for the proportional representation mandates in the multi-member constituency for which the voter is registered.

Article 9.2

The twenty-one (21) mandates from five (5) multi-member constituencies for the House of Representatives for the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina, from the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, are as follows:

Article 9.4

Political parties, coalitions, and independent candidates, certified in accordance with this law, may stand for election in a constituency.

deleted

Article 9.5

Mandates are allocated in each constituency in the following manner: For each political party and coalition, the total number of valid votes received by that political party or coalition shall be divided by 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, et seq., as long as necessary for the allocation in question. The numbers resulting from this series of divisions shall be the "quotients". The number of votes for an independent candidates is the quotient for that candidate. The quotients shall be arranged in order from the highest quotient to the lowest quotient. Mandates shall be distributed, in order, to the highest quotient until all the constituency mandates for the body have been distributed.

Political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates and independent candidates cannot participate in the allocation of mandates if they do not win more than 3% of the total number of valid ballots in an electoral unit.

Article 9.6

Compensatory mandates shall be allocated in the following manner:

Only political parties and coalitions, which won more than 3% of the total number of valid ballots for the territory of the entity for which the compensatory list is made may take part in the distribution of compensatory mandates. First, the total number of mandates for the legislative body to be allocated for the territory of the respective Entity, reduced by the number of mandates won by independent candidates, is distributed according to the formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law.

From the number of mandates a list of a political party or coalition has won according to this procedure, the number of mandates won by the same party or coalition, according to the procedure set forth in Article 9.6 of this law, is deducted. The remaining number is the number of compensatory mandates the list wins.

If a political party or coalition receives a negative number of mandates according to the procedure in the previous paragraph, the political party or coalition keeps the mandates won in the constituencies, but does not receive any compensatory mandates. In case one or more lists get a negative number of mandates, the mandates to be distributed according to the procedure of this article is decreased correspondingly to preserve the correct number of mandates in the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina elected from the territory of the respective Entity.

Article 9.7

Compensatory mandates won by a political party or coalition according to Article 9.7 of this law are allocated one by one to unelected candidates on the political party or coalition's list of candidates for compensatory mandates, beginning at the top of the list, until all mandates are distributed or until the list is exhausted.

Article 9.8

If a tie occurs because the quotients are identical in the distribution according to Articles 9.6, 9.7, and 9.8 of this law, the mandate shall be allocated on the basis of the drawing of a lot.

Mandates won by a list shall be distributed first amongst candidates on the list who individually received at least five percent (5%) of the total number of valid votes received by that list, these mandates being awarded in the order of the highest number of votes to the lowest number of votes. If there are still mandates to be distributed to a list and the candidates remaining are those who received less than five percent (5%) of the total valid votes received by that list, then distribution of the mandates among the remaining candidates from the list will be done according to their order on the list.

If a political party or coalition does not have enough eligible candidates on the list to fill seats allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list in another constituency according to the procedure set forth in Article 9.8 of this law.

Article 9.9

If the mandate of an independent candidate terminates, in accordance with Article 1.10 of this Law, the position shall remain vacant until the next regular elections.

Article 9.10

If an elected political party or coalition candidate's mandate terminates in accordance with the provisions of Article 1.10 of this law, then the mandate shall be given to the next candidate from the same constituency list in accordance with Article 9.9 paragraph 2 of this law. A vacancy in a compensatory mandate shall be filled from the party's compensatory mandate list.

If there are no more candidates on the same constituency list, then the mandate shall be given to the same political party or coalition's list in another constituency in accordance with Article 9.9 paragraph 3 of this law. If there are no more candidates remaining on any list for the political party or coalition, then the mandate shall remain vacant until the next regularly scheduled elections.

Article 9.11

The constituencies and the number of mandates allocated to each constituency established in this chapter shall be reviewed every four (4) years by the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina to ensure that they are drawn, bearing in mind geographical constraints, in a manner that complies with democratic principles, notably proportionality between the number of mandates and the number of registered voters.

Subchapter B

House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 9.12

The House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH shall consist of 15 Delegates, of whom two-thirds from the Federation (including five Croats and five Bosniaks) and one-third from the Republika Srpska (five Serbs).

Croat and Bosniak Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH from the Federation shall be elected by the Croat and Bosniak Caucus of Delegates as appropriate to the House of Peoples of the Federation of BIH.

Croat and Bosniak Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BIH shall elect delegates from their respective constitutive people.

Serb Delegates and Delegates of the Others to the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BIH shall not participate in the process of electing Bosniak and Croat Delegates for the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH from the Federation of BIH.

Delegates from the Republika Srpska (5 Serbs) to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH shall be elected by the National Assembly of the Republika Srpska.

Bosniak and Croat Delegates and Delegates of the Others to the National Assembly of the RS shall participate in the process of electing Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH from the Republika Srpska.

9.12b

Croat and Bosniak Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH shall be elected immediately after the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BIH is inaugurated, but not later than within thirty (30) days upon the certification of the election results in accordance with this Law.

Delegates from the Republika Srpska to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH shall be elected immediately after the National Assembly of the Republika Srpska is inaugurated, but not later than within thirty (30) days upon the certification of the election results in accordance with this Law.

9.12c

Bosniak or Croat Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH shall be elected in such a way that each political party participating in the Bosniak or Croat Caucus or each Delegate from the Bosniak or the Croat Caucus in the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BIH, shall have right to nominate one or more candidates to the list for the election of Bosniak or Croat Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BIH.

Each list may include more candidates than the number of Delegates to be elected to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

9.12d

Each Delegate from the Bosniak or the Croat Caucus in the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH shall cast one vote for a list of candidates for the election of Bosniak or Croat Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

The vote shall be cast as a secret ballot in accordance with this Law.

9.12e

Election of Delegates from the Republika Srpska to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH shall be conducted in such a way that each political party or each Delegate to the National Assembly of RS shall have right to nominate one or more candidates to the list for the election of Serb Delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

Each list may include more candidates than the number of Delegates to be elected to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH.

9.12f

Each Delegate to the National Assembly of RS shall cast one vote for a list of candidates to the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH from the Republika Srpska.

The vote shall be cast as a secret ballot in accordance with this Law.

9.12g

The election material and results of the vote referred to in Articles 9.12d and 9.12f of this Law shall be delivered to the Central Election Commission of BiH for verification in accordance with Article 2.9 of this Law and for the final allocation of mandates in accordance with Article 9.5 of this Law.

Mandates shall be allocated one by one according to the lists and in accordance with Article 9.5 of this Law. Mandates won shall be allocated in the order as contained in the list.

If the allocation of mandates in accordance with Article 9.5 of this Law results in a tie because the quotients are identical, a mandate shall be allocated by drawing a lot.

9.12h

If the event of a vacant position of Delegate in the House of Peoples of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH in accordance with Article 1.10 of this Law, this position shall be filled by the next qualified candidate of the same list which included the Delegate whose mandate has ceased.

If there are no candidates remaining on the same list, the mandate shall be allocated to the candidate with the highest quotient on the other list of the appropriate constitutive people.

If there is no such candidate, the election shall be repeated for election of Delegates from among the appropriate constitutive people, in accordance with Articles from 9.12c to 9.12g of this Law.

9.12i

The elections referred to in this Chapter (Candidacy and Voting Procedure) shall be conducted by the competent working bodies of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH and the National Assembly of RS.

Chapter 9A

President and Vice- President of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 9.13

In election of the President and Vice- Presidents of the Federation of BiH, at least one third of the delegates of the constituent peoples' caucuses to the House of Peoples of the Federation shall nominate delegates for the office of the President and Vice-Presidents.

Article 9.14

The joint slates for the office of President and Vice-Presidents of the Federation of BiH shall be formed from among the candidates referred to in Article 9.13.

The House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH shall vote on one or several joint slates composed of three candidates including one candidate from among each constituent peoples. The slate which receives the majority of votes in the House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH shall be elected if it gets majority of votes cast in the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH including majority of votes of each constituent peoples' caucuses.

Article 9.15

If the joint slate presented by the House of Representatives does not receive the necessary majority in the House of Peoples, this procedure will be repeated. If in the repeated procedure the joint slate which receives majority of votes in the House of Representatives is rejected again in the House of Peoples that joint slate shall be considered to be elected.

Article 9.16

The delegates to the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of BiH from the rank of Others may participate in the election of candidates for the President and Vice- President. However, on this occasion, no caucus of Others shall be formed and their vote shall not be counted in calculating the specific majority in the caucuses of the constituent peoples.

Article 9.17

The mandate of the President and Vice- President shall be for four (4) years provided that the mandate does not expire earlier.

Chapter 10

Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Subchapter A

House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 10.1

The House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall consist of ninety eight (98) members, directly elected by voters registered to vote for the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The mandate of members of the House of Representatives of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be four (4) years.

A certain number of members shall be elected from multi-member constituencies under the proportional representation formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law. There shall be compensatory mandates from the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina as a whole according to Article 9.7 of this law. The House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall determine, based solely on the guidelines set forth in Article 10.2 of this law, what shall be the number of mandates and boundaries for multi-member constituencies and the number of compensatory mandates.

A minimum number of four (4) members of each constituent people shall be represented in the Federation House of Representatives.

A voter shall have one ballot for the proportional representation mandates in the multi-member constituency for which the voter is registered. This ballot shall also count for the allocation of compensatory mandates under Article 10.5 of this law.

Article 10.2

The House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall determine, based solely on the guidelines set forth in this article, the number of mandates and boundaries for multi-member constituencies and the number of compensatory mandates.

Of the ninety eight (98) mandates for the House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, between twenty-three percent (23%) and twenty-seven percent (27%) shall be compensatory mandates. The remaining mandates shall be allocated in multi-member constituencies.

There shall be a minimum of ten (10) multi-member constituencies. A multi-member constituency shall have a minimum of three (3) members and a maximum of fifteen (15) members. The Brcko District shall be included in one of the multi-member constituencies.

The number of mandates for a constituency shall be determined as follows: The number of registered voters for the House of Representatives of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, as determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, shall be divided by the total number of constituency mandates to be allocated. The number of registered voters for a constituency shall be divided by the quotient resulting from the previous division to determine the number of mandates to which the constituency is entitled. Mandates which cannot be allocated based on whole numbers shall be allocated to constituencies on the basis of the highest remainders.

Article 10.3

Political parties, coalitions, and independent candidates, certified in accordance with Chapter 4 of this law, may stand for election in a constituency.

Every independent candidate for a constituency mandate shall run with a deputy on a single ticket. The deputy shall have no authority or power except where the deputy succeeds to the mandate of the elected candidate as provided in Article 9.10 of this law.

Article 10.4

Mandates are allocated in each multi-member constituency under the formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law.

Article 10.5

Compensatory mandates shall be allocated under the formula set forth in Article 9.7 of this law.

Article 10.6

A compensatory mandate won by a political party or coalition according to Article 10.5 of this law is allocated one by one to unelected candidates on the political party or coalition's list of candidates for compensatory mandates, beginning at the top of the list, until all mandates are distributed or until the list is exhausted.

Unless each constituent people receives a minimum of four (4) mandates, the later compensatory mandate(s) shall be given to the candidate(s) of the relevant constituent people(s) from the compensatory list of the political party or coalition having received the highest number of votes and having eligible candidates of the relevant constituent people left on the list.

If a political party or coalition does not have enough eligible candidates of the relevant constituent people on its compensatory list to fill the seats allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on its compensatory list(s). If no candidate from the relevant constituent people(s) can be found on any compensatory lists, the seat(s) shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on another list(s) in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

Article 10.7

If a tie occurs because the quotients are identical in the distribution according to Articles 10.4, 10.5, and 10.6 of this law, the mandate shall be allocated on the basis of the drawing of a lot.

Mandates won by a list shall be distributed amongst candidates on the list in the manner set forth in Article 9.9 paragraph 2 of this law.

If a political party or coalition does not have enough candidates on the list to fill seats allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the political party or coalition's list in another constituency according to the procedure set forth in Article 9.8 of this law.

Article 10.8

If an elected independent candidate's mandate terminates in accordance with the provisions of Article 1.10 of this law, then the vacancy shall be addressed in the manner set forth in Article 9.10 of this law.

If a political party or coalition candidate's mandate terminates in accordance with the provisions of Article 1.10 of this law, then the mandate shall be addressed in the manner set forth in Article 9.11 of this law.

Article 10.8A

When allocating mandates to fill mandates terminated in accordance with article 1.10 of this law, a minimum representation of four (4) members of each constituent people shall be ensured.

The following rules will apply and supercede the solutions specified in Articles 9.10 and 9.11 of this Law whenever the application of these articles would bring the representation of a Constituent people below the minimum spelled out in Article 10.1 of this law:

1. If the mandate of the elected independent candidate terminates, in accordance with Article 10.8 of this Law, the vacant position shall be filled by a candidate from the political party or coalition with the highest quotient in the same electoral unit, and which, in accordance with Article 9.8, Paragraph 2 of this Law, still has qualified candidates on its list from the same constituent people as the independent candidate whose mandate has terminated.

deleted

If the political party or coalition does not have enough eligible candidates on the list in the same constituency to fill seats allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on its list(s) in any other constituency in accordance with article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

2. If an elected political party or coalition candidate's mandate terminates, then the mandate shall be given to the next candidate from the same constituency list and belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

Should there be no more candidates on the same constituency list belonging to the same constituent people, then the mandate shall be given to the list of the same political party or coalition in another constituency that received the highest number of votes, in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

If there are no more candidates on any of the party or coalition's lists, then the mandate shall be given to the political party or coalition from the same constituency that received the highest number of votes and has eligible candidate(s) belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate on its list, in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

Should there be no more candidates from the same constituency belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate, then the mandate shall be given to the political party or coalition in any of the constituencies, that has received the highest number of votes and has eligible candidates belonging to that constituent people in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

3. If an elected political party or coalition candidate's compensatory mandate terminates, then the mandate shall be given to the candidate on the same compensatory mandate list who belongs to the same constituent people in accordance with Article 9.8 of this law.

Should there be no more eligible candidates belonging to the same constituent people on the same compensatory mandate list, then the mandate shall be given to the party or coalition that has received the highest number of votes and that has an eligible candidate belonging to the same constituent people on its compensatory mandate list. The mandate shall then be allocated in accordance with Article 9.8 of this law.

Article 10.9

The constituencies and the number of mandates allocated to each constituency established in this chapter shall be reviewed every four (4) years by the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to ensure that they are drawn, bearing in mind geographical constraints, in a manner that complies with democratic principles, notably proportionality between the number of mandates and the number of registered voters.

Subchapter B

House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Article 10.10

The Cantonal Legislature shall elect fifty eight (58) delegates to the House of Peoples, seventeen (17) from among Bosniaks, seventeen (17) from among Serbs, seventeen (17) from among Croats and seven (7) delegates from the rank of Others.

Article 10.11

The representatives from among Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs and Others in each Canton's Assembly shall elect delegates of their respective constituent peoples in that Canton.

Each party represented in the respective caucuses of the constituent peoples and Others or each member of one of these caucuses shall be entitled to nominate one or more candidates on a list for election of delegates of that particular caucus from that Canton.

Each list can include a larger number of candidates than is the number of delegates to be elected on the condition that the legislature of the Canton has a larger number of delegates from among Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs and Others than is the number of delegates from amongst Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs and Others that ought to be elected to the House of Peoples.

Article 10.12

The number of delegates from each constituent people and group of Others to be elected to the House of Peoples from the legislature of each canton shall be proportionate to the population of the canton as reflected in the last census. The Election Commission will determine, after each new census, the number of delegates elected from each constituent people and from the group of Others that will be elected from each canton legislature.

For each canton, the population figures for each constituent people and for the group of Others shall be divided by the numbers 1,3,5,7 etc. as long as necessary for the allocation. The numbers resulting from these divisions shall represent the quotient of each constituent people and of the group of Others in each canton. All the constituent peoples' quotients shall be ordered by size separately, the largest quotient of each constituent people and of the Others being placed first in order. Each constituent people shall be allocated one seat in every canton. The highest quotient for each constituent people in each canton shall be deleted from that constituent peoples' list of quotients. The remaining seats shall be allocated to constituent peoples and to the Others one by one in descending order according to the remaining quotients on their respective list.

Article 10.13

The election of delegates to the House of Peoples of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall take place as soon as a Cantonal Assembly convenes after the elections for the Cantonal Assemblies and no later than one month after validation of the results in accordance with Article 5.29 of this Law.

Article 10.14

Each delegate in the Cantonal Assembly shall cast one vote for a list within his/her appropriate caucus.

The vote shall be cast as a secret ballot.

Article 10.15

The results of vote shall be communicated to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina for the final allocation of seats. Mandates shall be distributed, one by one, to the lists or candidate with the highest quotients resulting from the proportional allocation formula referred to in Article 9.6 of this Law. When a list wins a mandate, the mandate shall be allocated from the top of the list.

Article 10.16

If the required number of delegates to the House of Peoples from among each constituent people or from the group of Others in a given cantonal legislature are not elected then the remaining number of Bosniak, Croat, Serb or Other delegates shall be elected from the other canton until the required number of delegates from among each constituent people is elected.

The Election Commission of BiH shall re-allocate, immediately after completion of the first round of election of the delegates to the House of Peoples in all cantons, the seats that cannot be filled from one canton. The Election Commission of BiH shall re-allocate that seat to the non-elected candidate who has the highest quotient on all lists running for the appropriate constituent people or for the Others in all cantons.

Article 10.17

If there is a vacancy due to death, resignation, or permanent incapacitation of a delegate in the House of Peoples of the Parliament of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, then the vacancy shall be filled by the next eligible candidate from the same list which contained the candidate who died, resigned or is permanently incapacitated.

If there are no remaining candidates on the list, then the mandate shall be allocated to the non-elected candidate with the highest quotient from another list running as candidate for the appropriate constituent people or for the Others in the same canton.

If there is no such candidate the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall re-allocate the seat in accordance with Article 10.16, paragraph 2 of this Law.

Article 10.18

The mandate of a delegate to the House of Peoples of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall be four (4) years.

If a cantonal assembly is dissolved, then the mandates of the delegates appointed by that cantonal assembly shall expire upon the appointment of new delegates to be elected by the new cantonal assembly after new elections. The mandate of such new delegates shall last until the next regularly scheduled elections.

Chapter 11

National Assembly of the Republika Srpska

Article 11.1

The National Assembly of the Republika Srpska shall consist of eighty-three (83) members, who shall be directly elected by voters registered to vote for the Republika Srpska. A certain number of members shall be elected from multi-member constituencies under the proportional representation formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law. There shall be compensatory mandates from the Republika Srpska as a whole according to Article 9.7 of this law. The National Assembly of the Republika Srpska shall determine, based solely on the guidelines set forth in Article 11.2 of this law, what shall be the number of mandates and boundaries for multi-member constituencies and the number of compensatory mandates.

A minimum number of four (4) members of each constituent people shall be represented in the National Assembly of Republika Srpska.

A voter shall have one ballot for the proportional representation mandates in the multi-member constituency for which the voter is registered.

The mandate of members of the National Assembly of the Republika Srpska shall be four (4) years.

Article 11.2

The National Assembly of the Republika Srpska shall determine, based solely on the guidelines set forth in this article, the number of mandates and boundaries for multi-member constituencies and the number of compensatory mandates.

Of the eighty-three (83) mandates for the National Assembly, between twenty-three percent (23%) and twenty-seven percent (27%) shall be compensatory mandates. The remaining mandates shall be allocated in multi-member constituencies.

There shall be a minimum of six (6) multi-member constituencies. A multi-member constituency shall have a minimum of four (4) members and a maximum of fifteen (15) members. The Brčko District shall be included in one of the multi-member constituencies.

The number of mandates for a constituency shall be determined as follows: The number of registered voters for the Republika Srpska, as determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, shall be divided by the total number of constituency mandates to be allocated. The number of registered voters for a constituency shall be divided by the quotient resulting from the previous division to determine the number of mandates to which the constituency is entitled.

Mandates which cannot be allocated based on whole numbers shall be allocated to constituencies on the basis of the highest remainders.

Article 11.3

Political parties, coalitions, and independent candidates, certified in accordance with Chapter 4 of this law, may stand for election in a constituency.

Every independent candidate for a constituency mandate shall run with a deputy on a single ticket. The deputy shall have no authority or power except where the deputy succeeds to the mandate of the elected candidate as provided in Article 9.10 of this law.

Article 11.4

Mandates are allocated in each constituency under the formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this law.

Article 11.5

Compensatory mandates shall be allocated under the formula set forth in Article 9.7 of this law.

Article 11.6

A compensatory mandate won by a political party or coalition according to Article 11.5 of this law is allocated one by one to unelected candidates on the political party or coalition's list of candidates for compensatory mandates, beginning at the top of the list, until all mandates are distributed or until the list is exhausted.

Unless each constituent people receives a minimum of four (4) mandates, the later compensatory mandate(s) shall be given to the candidate(s) of the relevant constituent people(s) from the compensatory list of the political party or coalition having received the highest number of votes and having eligible candidates of the relevant constituent people left on the list.

If a political party or coalition does not have enough eligible candidates of the relevant constituent people on its compensatory list to fill the seats allocated to it, then the mandate shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on its compensatory list(s). If no candidate from the relevant constituent people(s) can be found on any compensatory lists, the seat(s) shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on another list(s) in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

Article 11.7

If a tie occurs because the quotients are identical in the distribution according to Articles 11.4, 11.5, and 11.6 of this law, the mandate shall be allocated on the basis of the drawing of a lot.

Mandates won by a list shall be distributed amongst candidates on the list in the manner set forth in Article 9.9 paragraph 2 of this law.

If a political party or coalition does not have enough candidates on the list to fill mandates allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the political party or coalition's list in another constituency according to the procedure set forth in Article 9.8 of this law.

Article 11.8

If an elected independent candidate's mandate terminates in accordance with the provisions of Article 1.10 of this law, then the vacancy shall be addressed in the manner set forth in Article 9.10 of this law.

If a political party or coalition candidate's mandate terminates in accordance with the provisions of Article 1.10 of this law, then the mandate shall be addressed in the manner set forth in Article 9.11 of this law.

Article 11.8A

When allocating mandates to fill mandates terminated in accordance with article 1.10 of this law, a minimum representation of four (4) members of each constituent people shall be ensured.

The following rules will apply and supercede the solutions specified in Article 9.10 and 9.11 of this Law whenever the application of these articles would bring the representation of a Constituent people below the minimum spelled out in Article 10.1 of this law:

1. If the mandate of the elected independent candidate terminates, in accordance with Article 10.8 of this Law, the vacant position shall be filled by a candidate from the political party or coalition with the highest quotient in the same electoral unit, and which, in accordance with Article 9.8, Paragraph 2 of this Law, still has qualified candidates on its list from the same constituent people as the independent candidate whose mandate has terminated.

deleted

If the political party or coalition does not have enough eligible candidates on the list in the same constituency to fill seats allocated to it, the mandate shall be transferred to the party or coalition's list having received the highest number of votes and having such candidates left on its list(s) in any other constituency in accordance with article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

2. If an elected political party or coalition candidate's mandate terminates, then the mandate shall be given to the next candidate from the same constituency list and belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

~~Should there be no more candidates on the same constituency list belonging to the same constituent people, then the mandate shall be given to the list of the same political party or coalition in another constituency that received the highest number of votes, in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.~~

If there are no more candidates on any of the party or coalition's lists, then the mandate shall be given to the political party or coalition from the same constituency that received the highest number of votes and has eligible candidate(s) belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate on its list, in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

Should there be no more candidates from the same constituency belonging to the same constituent people as the original candidate, then the mandate shall be given to the political party or coalition in any of the constituencies, that has received the highest number of votes and has eligible candidates belonging to that constituent people in accordance with Article 9.9, paragraph 2 of this law.

~~3. If an elected political party or coalition candidate's compensatory mandate terminates, then the mandate shall be given to the candidate on the same compensatory mandate list who belongs to the same constituent people in accordance with Article 9.8 of this law.~~

Should there be no more eligible candidates belonging to the same constituent people on the same compensatory mandate list, then the mandate shall be given to the party or coalition that has received the highest number of votes and that has an eligible candidate belonging to the same constituent people on its compensatory mandate list. The mandate shall then be allocated in accordance with Article 9.8 of this law.

Article 11.9

The constituencies and the number of mandates allocated to each constituency established in this chapter shall be reviewed every four (4) years by the National Assembly of the Republika Srpska to ensure that they are drawn, bearing in mind geographical constraints, in a manner that complies with democratic principles, notably proportionality between the number of mandates and the number of registered voters.

Chapter 11. A

Election of Delegates to the Council of Peoples of Republika Srpska

Subchapter A

Council of Peoples of Republika Srpska

Article 11.10

The composition of the Council of Peoples is parity-based so that each constituent people shall have the same number of representatives.

The Council of Peoples shall be composed of twenty eight (28) members, eight (8) from among Bosniaks, eight (8) from among Serbs, eight (8) from among Croats and four (4) representatives of the group of Others.

Article 11.11

The members of the Council of Peoples shall be elected by their respective caucus in the National Assembly.

In the event that the number of members elected to one caucus of the Council of Peoples exceeds the number of the representatives of the respective caucus of the National Assembly, an additional number of members shall be elected by a caucus to be established for that purpose from among all members of the appropriate constituent peoples in the Municipal Assemblies in Republika Srpska.

Article 11.12

Any political party represented in the caucuses of the their respective constituent peoples and the Others or any member of one of these caucuses, including ad hoc members elected in accordance with Article 11.11, Paragraph 2, shall have the right to propose one or more candidates on the list for election of members of that relevant caucus.

Any list may contain a number of candidates that is larger than the number of members to be elected.

No delegate in the National Assembly or councillor of the Municipal Assembly may be a candidate.

Each delegate in the National Assembly shall cast one vote for a list within his or her caucus.

The vote shall be cast as a secret ballot.

Article 11.13

The results of the votes shall be communicated to the Election Commission for the final allocation of seats.

Mandates shall be distributed, one by one, to the lists or candidate with the highest quotients resulting from the proportional allocation formula provided for in Article 9.6. of the Election Law of BiH. When a list wins a mandate, the mandate shall be allocated from the top of the list.

Article 11.14

If there is a vacancy due to death, resignation or permanent incapacitation of a delegate to the Council of Peoples in the Republika Srpska, then the vacancy shall be filled by the next eligible candidate on the same list as the delegate who died, resigned or is permanently incapacitated.

If there are no remaining candidates on the list, the mandate shall be allocated to the non-elected candidate with the highest quotient from another list running as candidate for the appropriate constituent people or for the Others.

If there is no such candidate, new elections for the appropriate constituent people shall be held, in accordance with Articles 11.12 and 11.13. of this law.

Article 11.15

The election of delegates to the Council of Peoples of the Republika Srpska shall take place as soon as the National Assembly convenes and no later than a month after the validation of the results in accordance with Article 5.29 of this law.

Article 11.16

The mandate of a delegate to the Council of Peoples of the Republika Srpska shall be for four (4) years, provided that such mandate does not expire earlier.

The mandate of the Council of Peoples shall terminate as a result of reduction of the mandate of the National Assembly or dissolution of the National Assembly.

Chapter 12

President and Vice Presidents of Republika Srpska

Article 12.1

The President and two (2) Vice Presidents of Republika Srpska shall be directly elected from the territory of Republika Srpska by voters registered to vote for Republika Srpska.

Article 12.2

A voter registered to vote for the President of the Republika Srpska may vote for one candidate only.

Article 12.3

The candidate from each constituent people receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. Among these three (3) candidates, one from each constituent people, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected President, and the two candidates receiving the second and third highest number of votes shall be elected Vice Presidents.

Article 12.4

The mandate for the President and Vice Presidents of Republika Srpska shall be four (4) years.

Chapter 13

Cantonal Assemblies, Municipal Councils/Assemblies, and City Councils/Assemblies

Article 13.1

Mandates for Cantonal Assemblies and Municipal Councils/Assemblies and City Councils/Assemblies shall be allocated under the proportional representation system set forth in Article 13.5 of this law.

Article 13.2

The number of members of a Municipal Council/Assembly shall be as follows:

1. A municipality with a number of registered voters less than eight thousand (8,000), shall have between eleven (11) and seventeen (17) members.
2. A municipality with a number of registered voters between eight thousand (8,000) and twenty thousand (20,000), shall have between seventeen (17) and twenty-five (25) members.
3. A municipality with a number of registered voters more than twenty thousand (20,000), shall have between twenty-five (25) and thirty-one (31) members.

Article 13.3

The number of members of a Cantonal Assembly shall be as follows:

1. A canton with a number of registered voters less than seventy-five thousand (75,000), shall have between twenty (20) and twenty-five (25) members.
2. A canton with a number of registered voters between seventy-five thousand (75,000) and two hundred thousand (200,000), shall have between twenty-five (25) and thirty (30) members.
3. A canton with a number of registered voters more than two hundred thousand (200,000), shall have between thirty (30) and thirty-five (35) members.

Article 13.4

A political party, coalition, independent candidate, or list of independent candidates, certified by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, may stand for election for mandates allocated under this chapter.

Article 13.5

Allocation of mandates for the Cantonal Assembly and the Municipal Council/Assembly shall be conducted in accordance with Article 9.6 of this law.

If a political party, coalition, or list of independent candidates is distributed mandates equal to the number of candidates on its list and there are still mandates to be distributed, then the remaining quotients of that political party, coalition, or list of independent candidates shall be ignored in distributing the remaining mandates. If an independent candidate wins a mandate, then the remaining quotients of that independent candidate shall be ignored in distributing the remaining mandates.

If a tie occurs because the quotients are identical, the mandate shall be allocated on the basis of the drawing of a lot.

Mandates won by a list shall be distributed first amongst candidates on the list who individually received at least five percent (5%) of the total number of valid votes received by that list, these mandates being awarded in the order of the highest number of votes to the lowest number of votes. If there are still mandates to be distributed to a list and the candidates remaining are those who received less than five percent (5%) of the total valid votes received by that list, then distribution of the mandates among the remaining candidates from the list will be done according to their order on the list.

Article 13.6

If the mandate of a candidate from the list of a political party, coalition, or independent candidates terminates in accordance with Article 1.10 of this law, then the mandate shall pass to the next candidate as set forth in Article 13.5 paragraph 4 of this law. If the mandate of an independent candidate who did not stand on a list of independent candidates terminates in accordance with Article 1.10 of this law, then the mandate shall remain vacant.

Article 13.7

The Mayor may either be elected by an indirect election by the Municipal Council/Assembly or by a direct election by the registered voters in that municipality. If the Entity laws stipulate that there shall be a direct election of the Mayor then the election shall be conducted in accordance with paragraph two of this article. If the Entity laws stipulate that the election of the Mayor shall be elected indirectly by the Municipal Council/Assembly then the election shall be conducted in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article. If the Entity laws do not stipulate how the Mayor shall be elected then the Mayor shall be elected by an indirect election as established in paragraph 3 of this law.

If the Mayor is directly elected then the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall determine the form of the ballot.

If the Mayor is indirectly elected then he or she shall be elected by a majority vote of the total number of members of the Municipal Council/Assembly. Each member of the Municipal Council/Assembly may nominate a candidate for the position of the. In the event a candidate does not receive a majority vote of the total number of members, a second election shall be conducted. If no candidate receives a majority of votes of the total number of members, a third election shall be conducted. The member that receives the most votes in the third election shall be elected. In the event that there is a tie, the youngest of the tied candidates shall be elected Mayor.

In the event that the indirectly elected Mayor resigns, dies or is removed by the Municipal Council/Assembly, the Municipal Council/Assembly shall elect a new Mayor in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article.

Article 13.8

(deleted)

Article 13.9

(deleted)

Article 13.10

The members of the City Council/Assembly shall be elected by the Municipal Councils/Assemblies which form the City.

Mandates for the City Council/Assembly shall be allocated to candidate lists according to the system of proportional representation of political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates or groups of members as set forth in Article 13.5 of this law. Distribution of mandates amongst the candidates from the same list shall be done according to the order on the list of candidates for this election.

Each City Council/Assembly shall elect a Mayor and a President of the City Council/Assembly as set forth in Article 13.7 paragraph 3 of this law.

Article 13.11

The mandate of the Municipal Councils/Assemblies and the Cantonal Assemblies shall be for four (4) years.

(Paragraph 2 deleted)

Article 13.12

The election of the members of the City Council/Assembly shall take place as soon as the Municipal Councils/Assemblies convenes after the elections for the Municipal Councils/Assemblies.

Article 13.13

When officials managing Administrative bodies in the Municipal, Cantonal and City executive bodies are appointed by the Mayor or President of Government of the Canton, or when the Municipal or City Executive Board is elected by the Municipal or City Assembly, the composition of the population of the municipality, canton or city shall be taken into consideration.

Chapter 13A

Participation of Member of National Minorities in the Elections for Municipal Level

Article 13.14

Members of all national minorities in Bosnia and Herzegovina shall have the right to elect their representatives in Municipal Councils/Municipal Assemblies.

Members of all national minorities which make up to 3% of the total population of a municipality shall be guaranteed at least one seat in a Municipal Council/Municipal Assembly.

Members of all national minorities which make over 3% of the total population of a municipality shall be guaranteed at least two (2) seats in a Municipal Council/Municipal Assembly.

The number of members of national minorities elected in a Municipal Council/Municipal Assembly shall be established through the Municipal Statute on the basis of the last census conducted by the state of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates, independent candidates, national minorities associations and citizen groups consisting of at least forty (40) citizens who have a general right to vote shall have the right to nominate candidate members of national minorities to Municipal Councils/Municipal Assemblies.

Only those candidates representing a national minority shall be elected if their names are on the special list of national minority candidates stipulated by Paragraph 5 of this Article.

The candidate with a highest number of votes from the list of national minority's candidates shall represent that national minority.

During the allocation of mandates, first the mandates guaranteed to national minorities, as stipulated by Paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 7 of this Article, shall be allocated, and only then the regular mandates pursuant to Article 9.6 of this Law.

If a mandate is not allocated to a member of a national minority, that mandate shall remain vacant.

The General Provisions of this Law shall apply to all matters not regulated by this Chapter.

Chapter 14

Repeated, Postponed, and Early Elections

Article 14.1

Repeated elections shall be conducted using the same candidate lists and the same excerpts from the Central Voters Register which were used in the annulled elections and shall be conducted on a date determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina which shall be no later than fourteen (14) days from the date when the decision of the Central Election Commission of BiH to annul the elections became final.

Article 14.2

Postponed elections shall be conducted if, in an electoral unit or at a Polling Station, the voting did not take place on the day designated for voting.

Postponed elections shall be scheduled by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Postponed elections shall, as a rule, be conducted within seven (7) days, and no later than thirty (30) days, from the day designated for voting in the regular elections.

Article 14.3

In the event that an elected body is dissolved, or that its mandate has ceased, in accordance with the Constitution and Law, the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make a decision to announce early elections, establishing the exact date of the elections therein.

Early elections shall be held within 90 days of the dissolution of the elected body and/or the cessation of its mandate in accordance with the Constitution and Law.

From the date of the announcement of early elections to the date of holding of the elections no less than 30 and no more than 90 days may pass.

Terms of office of the members of the body elected in early elections shall last until the mandate of the body elected in the regular elections has expired.

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall conduct early elections in the manner and through the procedure prescribed by this law for the conduct of regular elections.

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall specify time-limits necessary for holding of elections, in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 14.3a

As an exception to Article 20.8, Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Law, for the purpose of early elections for the Municipal Council/Municipal Assembly or for Municipal Mayor/City Mayor, voters registered to vote in absentia shall exercise their voting right in person in the municipality of their residence as recorded in the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

contributions"); returns on its own assets and entrepreneurial activities; credits; loans; donations; rebates; refunds; other operating expenditures; and other sources for the reporting period as determined by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina;

3. Identification of the person or source of any payment and in-kind contribution, as well as the identification of a person who received that payment, in excess of one hundred (100) convertible marks, together with the date and amount of any such receipt;

4. The total amount of all account payables and total amount of disbursements in the following categories: costs for printing and distribution of posters, printing costs for pre-election announcements, statements and so on, in the public media, organizational and operational costs for organizing rallies, costs for printing, reproducing and delivering pre-election materials directly to voters, and

5. the amount and nature of outstanding debts and obligations owed by or to the person who files a report and where such debts and obligations are settled for less than their reported amount or value, a statement as to the circumstances and conditions under which such debts or obligations were extinguished.

Article 15.2

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall issue Regulations in order to implement this chapter, whereby it shall specify in detail the content, form, manner and other details of reporting.

All persons who are required to file reports must also file such additional reports as required by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina or by the Law on Party Financing.

Article 15.3

Every political entity, coalition or list of independent candidates, shall appoint a competent person who shall be in charge for filing reports and record-keeping, and who shall be authorized to receive communications from the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Those who file reports shall inform the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina about appointing the competent person referred to in paragraph 1 of this article within three (3) days of his or her appointment, and must file the amendments within three (3) days, of any changes to his or her status.

The competent person shall sign each such report and shall be responsible for keeping records that support the reports, and must make such reports available to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina upon request.

Article 15.4

An independent candidate shall be directly responsible for filing reports with the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 15.5

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall enable public access to all reports, and shall take appropriate actions to ensure that all citizens have easy access to information contained within the reports.

Article 15.6

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall have the authority to investigate instances of non-compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and may order individuals to answer written questions, to provide documentary and other evidence, and to provide testimony in connection with any investigation that the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may initiate. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina may initiate investigation or take appropriate implementing actions, on its own initiative or in response to a complaint filed by a person.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall have jurisdiction with respect to enforcing this chapter, and shall have power to make determinations that a political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or an independent candidate, or any other person has violated provisions of this chapter, and it shall have power to assess civil penalties against any political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate for non-compliance with the mentioned provisions, or to take appropriate administrative action within its general authority under this law.

Before assessing a civil penalty or taking administrative action, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall seek to achieve voluntary compliance with the political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate determined to be in violation.

Article 15.7

Every candidate standing for elected office at the level of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the Entity level shall be obliged, no later than fifteen (15) days from the day of accepting candidacy for the elections, to submit to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, on a special form, a signed statement on his or her total property situation, containing:

1. current income and sources of income, including all incomes, wages, profit from property, contributions as defined in Article 14.1 of this law, account receivables and other incomes realised in Bosnia and Herzegovina and abroad for a period of the past twelve (12) months;
2. property, including money, bank accounts, business documentation, shares, securities, bonds, real property, personal property, occupancy right and other property and possessions which exceed five thousand (5,000) convertible marks, in Bosnia and Herzegovina and abroad; and
3. disbursements and other liabilities, including all debts, liabilities, promissory notes, loans and guarantees of such liabilities in Bosnia and Herzegovina and abroad.

The statement should include the property situation of the candidates and close members of his or her family: spouse, children and members of the family household whom it is the candidate's legal obligation to sustain.

Article 15.8

All candidates elected at all levels of authority except the level of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Entity level shall be obliged to submit to the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, within thirty (30) days from the publication of the verification of mandates in the Official Gazette of BIH, a signed statement of their property situation referred to in Article 14.7 of this law on a special form.

Candidates elected to a body of authority at all levels shall be required to submit a statement of their property situation to the Central Election Commission of BIH 60 days prior to the expiration of the mandate for which they have been elected, as well as in the case of cessation of the mandate in the context of the provisions of Article 1.10, Paragraph 1, sub-paragraph 1, 3, 5, 6 and 7 of this Law, within 30 days from the cessation of the mandate.

The Central Election Commission of BIH shall issue instructions to regulate the format and the manner of filling out of necessary forms as described by Paragraph 1 of this Article and Article 15.7 of this Law.

Article 15.9

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall make the forms containing the statements on total property situation available to the public. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall not be responsible for accuracy of data or complaints regarding the information contained in the forms.

deleted

Article 15.10

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall announce the number of voters for each electoral unit within seven days of the day of completion of the Central Voters Register. The number of voters shall serve as a basis to determine a maximum amount that a political entity shall be allowed to spend for financing the election campaign

The maximum amount allowed to be spent for financing the election campaign shall represent a result of the multiplication of the number of voters in all electoral units in which the political entity referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article has a list of candidates by:

1. 0.30 KM ..... for the elections of Head of Municipality/City Mayor and members of the Municipal Council/Assembly
2. 0.20 KM ..... for the elections of members of Cantonal Assemblies
3. 0.30 KM ..... for the elections of members of the RS National Assembly and the House of Representatives of the Federation Parliament

4. 0.30 KM ..... for the elections of members of the Parliamentary Assembly of BiH
5. 0.30 KM ..... for the elections of members of the Presidency of BiH
6. 0.30 KM ..... for the elections of President and Vice-President of the Republika Srpska.

For the elections referred to in Paragraph 2, sub-paragraph 1 of this Article, in the municipalities with less than 3,000 voters recorded in the Central Voter Register, it shall be considered that 3,000 voters are registered.

If the elections are repeated in an electoral unit, or in the Polling Station, the costs of the election campaign per voter can increase by up to 30% of the costs of the elections annulled in the electoral unit or the polling.

Chapter 16

Media in the Election Campaign

Article 16.1

The media in BiH shall cover election activities in a just, professional and competent manner, consistently respecting the journalists code of conduct and generally accepted democratic rules and principles, especially the basic principle of freedom of expression.

Article 16.2

Electronic media shall cover pre-election activities and observe the principle of balance, fairness and impartiality.

Article 16.3

In broadcasts of the electronic media, no political entity shall have a privileged position with respect to another political entity.

Officials at all levels of authority who participate in the elections as candidates must not enjoy a privileged position with respect to other participants in the electoral process.

Informing on regular activities of officials at all levels of authority is allowed within information programs of electronic media, with no reference to their candidacy for the elections or their party membership, whenever the information is about the activities that fall within the scope of activities of the body they represent as set forth by the Law.

Article 16.4

Electronic media shall pay special attention to respect the principles of balance, fairness and impartiality in information programs, especially in news, interviews and discussions on important political issues, such as round tables and similar, which thematically do not directly concern the election activities of political entities, but which could influence opinion of voters.

Article 16.5

The electronic media shall clearly and without reservation disclose the following information in releasing results of a public opinion survey:

- a) Name of the institution or person that ordered and paid the survey,
- b) Name and the seat of the institution that conducted the survey,
- c) Size of the sample and a possible tolerance in the survey results,
- d) The period in which the survey was conducted.

Results of a telephone public opinion research or street poll conducted among voters during the campaign shall not be presented as a reliable or trustful opinion of a particular social group, which must be particularly emphasized by the media that conducts the survey and announces results.

Article 16.6

Journalists and moderators in the electronic media must not express their possible party membership or affiliation in regular or special programs.

Article 16.7

The order of appearance for direct address by political entities in special programs shall be established by drawing a lot prior to the campaign, in the presence of representatives of political entities and the Central Election Commission of BiH.

Article 16.8

The electronic media shall inform all political entities of the timings for their participation in special programs.

Once established the timings must not be changed, and failure of a political entity to show up shall be considered as voluntarily giving up of the election campaign presentation in the electronic media.

Article 16.9

The electronic media shall broadcast entire statements and information by the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina free of charge for the purpose of informing voters about all aspects of the electoral process.

Article 16.10

Results of public opinion research related to the voting and elections shall not be released during the period beginning 48 hours prior to the opening of Polling Stations and until the close of polling stations.

Article 16.11

No media coverage of any political and electoral campaign activity shall take place in the whole territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina during the period beginning twenty-four (24) hours prior to the opening of the Polling Stations.

The campaign silence period shall continue until the close of Polling Stations.

Article 16.12

The electronic media shall provide equal conditions for paid political advertisements of political entities (commercials, public calls, jingles, video-clips and any other type of promotion of a political entity) in the period of 30 days prior to the election day.

The electronic media shall ensure that paid political advertisements are clearly separated from the rest of the program and shall not be counted within the limit on the allowed time for commercials set by the Communications Regulatory Agency (CRA) of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The electronic media shall receive orders for paid political advertisements directly from political entities or through the legal or private persons so authorised by the political entities.

Orders including the contents of advertisements shall be delivered to the electronic media not later than 48 hours prior to broadcast.

Advertisements shall be paid in advance and the prices of political advertisements must not be higher than the prices in the existing marketing price-list of the given media.

Article 16.13

The electronic media shall have the right to refuse to broadcast a political advertisement in case that:

- a) the advertisement has not been properly ordered in a written form;
- b) the advertisement does not meet technical and professional standards which are clearly identified and of which the political entity has been duly informed; and

c) the advertisement or the content thereof violates the Constitution or laws of BIH.

Article 16.14

The public electronic media shall present political entities in an equal and fair manner and shall inform the public of all issues related to the campaign and the election process during 30 days prior to the election day.

The public electronic media shall provide free broadcast time for direct access by political entities during 30 days prior to the election day.

The regulations of the Central Election Commission of BIH shall determine the amount of broadcast time to be allocated to the political entities, the broadcast time and duration of the broadcast, as well as the geographic regions covered by the broadcasts.

The public electronic media shall provide equal conditions for paid political advertisements of political parties in the duration of maximum 30 minutes per week during 30 days prior to the election day.

Article 16.15

The private electronic media shall provide equal conditions for paid political advertisements of political entities in the duration of maximum 60 minutes per week during 30 days prior to the election day.

The private electronic media may provide free broadcast time for direct access by political parties, during 30 days prior to the Election Day, but under equal conditions applicable to all.

At the written request, the body competent to regulate the work of the electronic media may exempt specific private electronic media from application of this Article.

The private electronic media broadcasting its own information and political program or relaying a program received from another media shall not be subject to the provision of the previous Paragraph.

Article 16.16

The body regulating the work of the electronic media that is responsible to implement laws and regulations related to media, shall be competent in all cases of violation of the provisions governing the media concerning elections as established by this Law and other laws governing the work of the media.

The Central Election Commission of BIH shall be competent to decide complaints of violations of Article 16.14 of this Law.

Article 16.17

The political entities shall refer to the Press Council of BIH with their complaints of a content in the printed media concerning coverage of the electoral campaign.

Article 16.18

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall issue by-laws to regulate in more detail the application of the provisions of this Chapter.

Chapter 17

Election Observers

Article 17.1

Representatives of international observers, associations of citizens, political parties, coalitions, lists of independent candidates and independent candidates (hereinafter "observers") may observe all electoral activities in Bosnia and Herzegovina provided that they are accredited in accordance with this law.

Observers shall have access to relevant documents and public election commission meetings, shall be free to contact any person at any time during the entire period of the electoral process, and shall have access to all Voter Registration Centres,

Polling Stations, Counting Centres, and other relevant locations as specified by the Election Commission of Bosnia & Herzegovina

Article 17.2

Observers shall not in any way interfere with electoral activities and they shall respect the secrecy of the voting. An observer may have only 1 representative at the same time at a public election commission meeting, Voter Registration Centre, Counting Centre, Polling Station, or any other relevant location, as specified by the Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

International observers shall not be subject to the limitation of the number of observers referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article.

Observers, while observing electoral activities, shall wear official accreditation identification and an observer shall not wear or carry any insignia or mark that identifies him or her with a particular political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate.

Article 17.3

~~The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall accredit and issue accreditation identification for International Observers. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations in order to determine the criteria and the application process for the accreditation of international observers.~~

Article 17.4

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall accredit and issue accreditation identification to associations of citizens. The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations in order to determine the criteria for accreditation of the associations of citizens and the distribution of accreditation identification. The application for accreditation shall include:

1. a signed statement by the authorised person of the association of citizens that the association is not established or sponsored by or engaged in any activities on behalf of a registered political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate; and
2. the names and national identification numbers of the nominated observers.

Article 17.5

The competent election commission shall accredit a registered political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate to act as observers in the electoral unit in which the political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate has registered to stand for office.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall accredit observers who will observe the work of the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Central Counting Centre(s).

Entity and Cantonal Election Commissions shall accredit observers who will observe the work of their commissions.

A Municipal Election Commission shall accredit observers who will observe the work of the Municipal Election Commission, Voter Registration Centres, Polling Stations, and any other relevant location in its jurisdiction.

The political party, coalition, list of independent candidates or independent candidate shall submit the names and national identification numbers of the nominated observers to the competent election commission.

Article 17.6

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall establish Regulations concerning the accreditation identification's design, and the manner that it is to be used by the observer.

Article 17.7

The final deadline for submission of an application for accreditation of observers shall be established by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and the deadline concerning requests for the accreditation of observers.

Article 17.8

An observer who has been denied accreditation by a Municipal, Cantonal, or Entity Election Commission may within three (3) days from the day of receipt of the decision submit a complaint with the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which will resolve it within seven (7) days from the day of the receipt.

Article 17.9

An observer may submit a substantiated objection, in writing, to the work of the bodies responsible for the conduct of elections as established by this Law, which shall be enclosed to the record on the work of said body responsible for the conduct of elections, on the basis of which a political entity may submit a complaint to the competent body.

The observer shall have the right to request a copy of the record on the work of the body responsible for the conduct of elections whose work she/he has observed.

Article 17.10

The body issuing accreditation to an accredited observer may revoke his/her status of an observer and cancel the accreditation because of a violation of the provision of Article 17.2.

The Central Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall issue detailed regulations on the conditions and procedure of the application of this Article.

Chapter 18

Brčko District

Article 18.1

This law shall stipulate the principles governing the elections in the Brčko District.

The territory of the Brčko District shall be one constituency.

Article 18.2

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is registered to vote for the Brčko District shall have the right to vote:

1. for the Members of the Presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the House of Representatives of the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina by casting the appropriate ballot in the Entity for which the voter is a citizen;
2. in the elections of the Entity of which the voter is a citizen; and
3. in District elections for the District Assembly and any other District electoral offices

Article 18.3

The cost and expense for the conduct of elections in the Brčko District shall be provided for in the budget of the institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina and international obligations of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Republika Srpska and the Brčko District, depending on the level for which the elections are conducted.

Chapter 19

The City of Mostar

Article 19.1

This law shall govern the elections of the councilors to the Council of the City of Mostar (hereinafter: "the City Council"). The principles outlined in this Chapter will apply to elections in the City of Mostar, notwithstanding Chapter 13 of this Law.

Article 19.2

The City Council shall be composed of 35 members. The councilors in the City Council shall be elected in a city-wide electoral constituency and city area electoral constituencies, in the manner set forth in Article 19.4 hereof.

'A city-wide electoral constituency' shall for the purpose of the preceding paragraph cover the entire territory of the City, as defined in Article 5 of the Statute of the City of Mostar.

For the purpose of paragraph 1 of this Article, "city areas electoral constituencies" shall be the former city municipalities, as defined by Article 7 and 15 of the Statute of the City of Mostar.

Article 19.3

The City of Mostar shall have one Election Commission established in accordance with the provisions of this Law pertaining to Municipal Election Commissions.

Article 19.4

Seventeen (17) councilors shall be elected from a city-wide electoral constituency. A minimum of four (4) councilors of each constituent people and one (1) councilor from the group of "Others" shall be elected from the city-wide electoral constituency.

Three (3) councilors shall be elected from each of the six city area electoral constituencies.

The city area electoral constituency 1 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar North.

The city area electoral constituency 2 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar Stari Grad.

The city area electoral constituency 3 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar Southeast.

The city area electoral constituency 4 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar South.

The city area electoral constituency 5 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar Southwest.

The city area electoral constituency 6 shall consist of the former City-Municipality Mostar West.

Each constituent people or the group of "Others" shall not have more than fifteen (15) representatives in the City Council.

Article 19.5

The mandates to be filled from the city-wide electoral constituency shall first be allocated under the formula set forth in Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law. If the allocation of mandates from the city-wide electoral constituency does not allow minimum representation of any of the constituent peoples and/or of the group of "Others", as provided for under Article 19.4, paragraph 1 of this Law, the following method shall apply:

1. the last mandate(s) to be allocated from the city-wide electoral constituency required to fill the quotas of any of the constituent peoples and/or the group of "Others" shall be allocated to the candidate(s) from the relevant constituent people(s) and/or group of "Others" having received the highest number of votes on the list of the political party, the list of independent candidates or the coalition's list to which the mandate was allocated under Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law. If the mandate would, under the formula set for the in Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law, be allotted to an independent candidate, item 2 of this Article will apply.

2. If the political party, list of independent candidates or coalition to which the mandate(s) was allocated under Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law does not have enough such eligible candidate(s) on its city-wide electoral list or if the mandate would, under Article 9.6 of this Law, be allocated to an independent candidate, the mandate shall be transferred either:

- to the political party(ies), list(s) of independent candidates or coalition(s) having such candidates left on its list;

- to (an) independent candidate(s) from the relevant constituent people or from the group of "Others", which/whoever ha(s)(ve) the next highest quotient as defined in Article 9.6 of this Law.

3. If no candidate from the relevant constituent people(s) or the group of "Others" can be found in accordance with items 1 and 2 of this Article, the mandate(s) shall be transferred to either:

- the political party, list of independent candidates or coalition's list having such candidate(s) left on a list for any city area constituency after the seats filled from the area constituencies have been allocated in accordance with Article 19.6 of this Law;

or

- the independent candidate(s) from the relevant constituent people or from the group of "Others" running for any city area constituency, which/whoever ha(s)(ve) received the highest quotient as defined in Article 9.6 of this Law.

Article 9.6, paragraph 2 shall not apply when allocating mandate(s) under this Article.

Article 19.6

The mandates filled from the city areas electoral constituencies are thereafter allocated under the formula set forth in Article 9.6 of this Law. Mandates shall be allocated individually, starting with the highest placed candidate in each city area constituency, and proceeding in similar fashion to fill each available seat from each city area constituency. The sequence of filling the mandate allotted to each city area constituency, for each of the three successive steps, shall be determined by the drawing of lots. The drawing of lots shall be organized by the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

If the allocation of a mandate from the city areas electoral constituency would lead to the representation of a constituent people and/or the group of Others beyond the quota provided for under Article 19.4, paragraph 4 of this Law, the following method shall apply:

1. The mandate shall be re-allocated to the candidate who does not belong to the said constituent people and/or to the group of "Others" having received the highest number of votes on the list of the political party, the list of independent candidates or coalition's list to which the mandate was allocated under Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law. If the mandate would, under the formula set for the in Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law, be allotted to an independent candidate, item 2 of this Article will apply.

2. If there is no such candidate or if the mandate would, under the formula set for the in Article 9.6, paragraph 1 of this Law, be allotted to an independent candidate, the mandate shall be transferred, in the same city area constituency, either:

- to the party, list of independent candidates or coalition's list having a candidate who does not belong to the said constituent people and/or to the group of "Others" left on its list;

or

- to the independent candidate(s) who does not belong to the said constituent people and/or to the group of "Others", which/whoever has the next highest quotient as defined in Article 9.6 of this Law.

3. If no such candidate can be found in accordance with items 1 and 2 of this Article, the mandate(s) shall be transferred to either:

- the political party, list of independent candidates or coalition's list having such candidate(s) left on a list for any other city area constituency after the seats filled from that city area constituencies have been allocated in accordance with Article 19.6 of this Law;

or

- the independent candidate(s) from the relevant constituent people or from the group of "Others" running for any city area constituency,

which/whoever ha(s)(ve) received the highest quotient as defined in Article 9.6 of this Law.

Article 19.7

Notwithstanding Article 13.7 of this Law, the Mayor of the City of Mostar will be indirectly elected in accordance with the Constitution of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 20.8

Until otherwise decided by the High Representative or the Parliamentary of Bosnia and Herzegovina pursuant to paragraph seven of this article, a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is a displaced person and has the right to vote, shall have the right to register and to vote in person or absentee for the municipality in which the person had his or her permanent place of residence according to the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina, except in the case where the person can provide proof of a change of his or her permanent residence in accordance with the law, in the period from the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina until that person acquired status as a displaced person, or in person for the municipality of his or her current residence, under the condition that he or she became a resident of that municipality at least six (6) months prior to the election day.

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is a displaced person and has the right to vote under this article, shall register depending on the voting option this person chooses, for the municipality where he or she had a permanent place of residence according to the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina, except in the case where this person can provide proof of a change of his or her permanent residence in accordance with the law, in the period from the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina until this person acquired status as a displaced person, or for the municipality where this person has current residence and provides proof that he or she has registered as a current resident at least six (6) months prior to the election day.

The citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is occupying a house or an apartment for which s/he does not have an ownership or occupancy right, while an enforcement document is issued by a competent court or administrative authority on the restitution of a house or an apartment, or CRPC decision, has no right to vote in the place of current domicile, until s/he abandons real-estate property owned by other, and may register to vote only in the municipality where s/he had the permanent residence in accordance to the last Census in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Current residence, for the purpose of this article, is the municipality where a displaced citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina has temporary residence, until conditions are met for his or her return to the municipality where he or she had permanent residence according to the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Until otherwise decided by the High Representative or the Parliamentary of Bosnia and Herzegovina pursuant to paragraph seven of this article, a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who is a refugee and who has the right to vote shall have the right to register and to vote in person or by mail for the municipality in which the person had his or her permanent place of residence according to the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina, except in the case where the person can provide proof of a change of his or her permanent residence in accordance with the law, in the period from the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina until that person acquired refugee status.

A citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina who has refugee status and has the right to vote under this article, shall register for the municipality where he or she had a permanent place of residence according to the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina, except in the case where he or she can provide proof of a change of his or her permanent residence in accordance with the law, in the period from the last Census conducted by the State of Bosnia and Herzegovina until that person acquired refugee status.

The special rights to register and to vote provided to displaced persons and refugees in this article shall expire on a day determined by the High Representative. If the High Representative does not so decide before his or her mandate terminates, then the special rights to displaced and refugee voters shall continue until so decided by the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The following factors should be considered before deciding on the expiration of the special rights to vote granted to displaced persons and refugees:

1. Status of implementation of property laws;
2. Number of persons registered as displaced persons;
3. Factors establishing sustainability of return which include safety of returnees, access to education and services, non-discrimination in employment and labor relations and functioning of the judicial system.

Article 20.9

No person may stand as a candidate, hold an elected mandate or an appointed office, who fails to vacate real estate property which is owned by a refugee or displaced person, or fails to leave an apartment where a refugee or displaced person has an occupancy right, or failed to leave an apartment, which is under the administration of the municipal administrative authority responsible for housing or responsible body of the RS Ministry of Refugees and Displaced Persons for use as alternative accommodation, within a deadline specified by:

- 1) an administrative decision;
- 2) an enforcement decision issued pursuant to a Commission for Real Property Claims of Displaced Persons and Refugees (CRPC) certificate; or
- 3) a court decision whereby the property is to be returned to the owner or when the said decision is in favor of the request for the return of possession of an apartment to the occupancy right holder.

No person may stand as a candidate, hold an elected mandate or an appointed office, who fails to vacate real estate property which is owned by a refugee or displaced person, or fails to leave an apartment where a refugee or displaced person has an occupancy right, within 120 days of the filing with the competent administrative body of a request for enforcement of a CRPC certificate which confirms the ownership or occupancy right of that displaced person or refugee. In no case will a person be in violation of this article unless he or she has received 30 days notice by the election commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina of the existence of a request for an enforcement decision of a CRPC certificate.

Article 20.9A

Until 31 December 2007, the following exclusions will apply:

- i) No person who has been removed from public office by decision of the High Representative for action or inaction in violation of the commitments made under the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina or in connection with the terms of its implementation shall be permitted to be a candidate in direct or indirect elections covered by this law or to hold any mandate gained in direct or indirect elections covered by this law, except as otherwise determined by the High Representative;
- ii) No person who, pursuant to Chapter 14 of the Instructions to the Parties issued under Annex 1A to the General Framework Agreement for Peace, has been removed from a military command or office as a result of having engaged in activities that threaten or endanger the peace process, shall be permitted to be a candidate in direct or indirect elections covered by this law or to hold any mandate gained in direct or indirect elections covered by this law;
- iii) No person who has been de-authorized or denied certification by decision of the International Police Task Force Commissioner for having obstructed the implementation of the General Framework Agreement for Peace, shall be permitted to be a candidate in direct or indirect elections covered by this law or to hold any mandate gained in direct or indirect elections covered by this law.

The Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall, after determining whether a decision provided for in paragraph 1 of this Article has been taken and whether the conditions prescribed in this Article are met, be responsible for enforcing the prohibition contained in this Article.

Article 20.9B

Until 31 December 2007, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall ensure that the application for certification of any political party and any other documents submitted under Article 4.3 of this Law and under the internal regulations of the Election Commission, do not include a person referred to in Article 20.9A.

Should the documents referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article show that a person referred to under the first item of paragraph 1 of Article 20.9A holds any party position, the Election Commission of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall in a timely manner obtain confirmation from the international agency that issued the decision as to whether it has, by decision or otherwise, expressly provided that the person subject to such decision would be entitled to hold office within a political party.

If the documents referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article show that a person referred to in Article 20.9A holds a central party position and provided that the person is not entitled to hold such office under paragraph 2 of this Article, that political party shall not be eligible for certification.
